

Matthew F. "Matt" Carlucci

Matthew F. "Matt" Carlucci is the founder and owner of Matthew F. Carlucci Insurance Agency, Inc. He is a 33-year State Farm Insurance veteran and a former board member of the Jacksonville Association of Insurance and Financial Advisors, which awarded him the 2001 Community Service Award. Mr. Carlucci holds a Bachelor of Arts in Education from the University of North Florida.

Mr. Carlucci served three terms on the Jacksonville City Council, including a year as president in 2001-2002. While in public office, Mr. Carlucci fought for ethics in government, carrying on the tradition of his father, the late Florida Senator Joe Carlucci. He authored, and successfully championed, the 1992 legislation that created the Jacksonville Ethics Commission. For his many efforts, Mr. Carlucci was awarded the Claude J. Yates Award for Outstanding City Council Member on the 25th anniversary of Jacksonville's consolidated government. Mr. Carlucci also ways recognized by the Jacksonville Regional Chamber of Commerce for excellence in government and was a recipient of the Charles D. Webb Award for Outstanding Legislative Service.

Mr. Carlucci has long been active in the Jacksonville community, serving as president of the Jacksonville Historical Society and the Jacksonville Police Council, as well as serving on the boards of Communities In Schools and Big Brothers Big Sisters. He is currently a board member of Theatre Jacksonville. Mr. Carlucci was appointed by Governor Rick Scott to the Florida Commission on Ethics in 2011.

A Jacksonville native, Mr. Carlucci is a long-time resident of Jacksonville's San Marco neighborhood, where he resides with his wife of 37 years, the former Karen Lee Signoretti. The Carluccis are the proud parents of two grown sons, Matthew Carlucci Jr. and Joe Carlucci II, and have one grandson, Matthew F. Carlucci III and a granddaughter, Lillianna Kate. The entire family belongs to Southpoint Community Church. Mr. Carlucci enjoys spending time with his wife and family, reading presidential biographies, fly fishing, and walking.
