Financial Disclosure Appeal No. FD 16-015
Final Order No.

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on March 10, 2017, on the timely appeal of Ryan Osborne, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant was employed by the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission in a position requiring the filing of a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2015. In 2016, the designated due date for submitting a 2015 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 1, 2016, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2016.

2. On May 10, 2016, the Commission on Ethics sent Appellant a 2015 CE Form 1. This mailing was sent to 620 South Meridian Street, Tallahassee, FL 32399-6543, the address of his employer, the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission.

3. On July 28, 2016, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Delinquency by certified mail. This notice was also sent to the 620 South Meridian Street address. The notice was delivered and signed by someone at the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission.

4. On August 16, 2016, the Commission mailed Appellant a postcard intended to remind him of his obligation to file a 2015 CE Form 1. The Commission mailed the postcard to the 620 South Meridian Street address.

5. On September 7, 2016, six days after the grace period expired, the Commission mailed Appellant a courtesy notice informing him that an automatic fine had begun to accrue. The Commission mailed this notice to the 620 South Meridian Street address.

6. On September 12, 2016, a staff member with the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission called the Commission and advised the Commission that they had received the September 7, 2016 notice, but that Appellant had been terminated on May 27, 2016.

7. On September 13, 2016, Commission staff emailed Appellant to notify him of his financial disclosure obligation. Commission staff advised Appellant of his right to appeal the fine, and emailed him the 2015 CE Form 1 and 2016 CE Form 1F to complete.

8. On September 13, 2016, Appellant called the Commission regarding his financial disclosure obligation. Appellant stated that he never received the financial disclosure form or any of the notices sent by the Commission, which had been mailed to his work address. He further stated that the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission had not forwarded any of his mail to him. Commission staff again notified Appellant of his right to appeal the fine and emailed him the 2015 CE Form 1 and 2016 CE Form 1F to complete.

9. On September 23, 2016, Appellant submitted his 2015 CE Form 1 and 2016 CE Form 1F to the Commission.

10. The amount of fine automatically assessed against Appellant was $550.

11. On January 31, 2017, the Commission mailed a Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine to 3218 Yeats Avenue, Tallahassee, FL 32311, the address provided by Appellant in his financial disclosure filings. This mailing indicated the total of Appellant's accrued automatic fine. The mailing also included a notice of his right to appeal the fine.

12. On February 3, 2017, Appellant submitted his appeal to the Commission. In his appeal, Appellant claims that he failed to timely file his disclosure form due to lack of notice. Appellant states that he resigned his position with the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission in May 2016, and that he did not receive any of the notices from the Commission regarding his financial disclosure obligation, which were sent to his previous work address. Appellant claims that he had previously filed his appeal with the Commission on September 23, 2016, the same day that he delivered the 2015 CE Form 1 and 2016 CE Form 1F to the Commission.

Conclusions of Law

13. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

14. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government. In order to increase compliance, beginning in 2001 the Legislature provided for an automatic fine of $25 per day, up to a cap of $1,500, on persons who do not timely file their financial disclosure statements. Under the law, the Legislature permitted the Commission to waive a fine only "based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date"

15. Commission Rule 34-8.215, F.A.C., defines "unusual circumstances" as follows:

uncommon, rare or sudden events over which the reporting individual has no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirement. Circumstances which allow for time in which to take those steps necessary to assure compliance with the filing requirement shall be deemed not to constitute unusual circumstances.

16. Appellant's basis for the appeal of his fine is that he did not receive notice of his obligation to file the 2015 CE Form 1, or any of the notices sent to him by the Commission since he had left his employment with the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission in May 2016, and all of the notices were sent to address where he worked. It appears notices concerning Appellant's filing obligations were sent to his place of employment and were not forwarded to him. Appellant's basis for the appeal of his fine, that he did not receive notification of his obligation to file the 2015 CE Form 1, constitutes an "unusual circumstance" that justifies waiving the $550 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $550.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, March 10, 2017.

WHAT TO FILE:

After completing all parts of this form on pages 1 and 2, including signing and dating it, send back only pages 1 and 2 for filing (you need not return any of the instruction pages). Facsimiles will not be accepted.

WHEN TO FILE:

At the end of office or employment each local officer, state officer, and specified state employee is required to file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment, unless he or she takes another position within the 60-day period that requires filing financial disclosure on Form 1 or Form 6.

WHERE TO FILE:

Local officers: file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which you permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.)

State officers or specified state employees: file with the Commission on Ethics, P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709; physical address: 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, Florida 32303.

NOTE:

If you are leaving office or employment during the first half of 2016, you may not have filed Form 1 for 2015. In that case, this is not the last form you will file. Form 1F covers January 1, 2016, through your last day of office or employment. You will be required to file Form 1 for 2015 by July 1, 2016, and risk being fined if you do not file Form 1 by the filing deadline, even if you have already filed the CE Form 1F.
