

Nicholas X. Duran

Nicholas X. Duran is Executive Director of National Business Development for Aetna Better Health, where he leads strategic planning, business development, and growth initiatives supporting Medicaid and other government-sponsored healthcare programs across multiple states. In this role, he collaborates with executive leadership on healthcare strategy, public policy, community partnerships, and initiatives designed to improve access to care and health outcomes for underserved populations.

Mr. Duran is a member of The Florida Bar and earned his Juris Doctor from New York Law School. He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Florida. His legal training and public policy experience have informed a career focused on the intersection of healthcare, government, ethics, and community impact.

Prior to his current role, Mr. Duran served in the Florida House of Representatives, representing portions of Miami-Dade County. During his tenure in the Legislature, he worked on a range of issues affecting Florida communities, including healthcare policy, government accountability, ethics in public service, and economic development.

Mr. Duran has also held executive leadership positions in the nonprofit healthcare sector, advancing initiatives to expand access to care and improve health outcomes for vulnerable populations. He currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Health Foundation of South Florida, The Florida Epilepsy Alliance and the Health Council of South Florida.

A resident of Miami-Dade County, Mr. Duran remains active in civic, healthcare, and community affairs throughout Florida.
