

Jon M. Philipson

Jon M. Philipson is a Tampa-based shareholder at Gunster, specializing in business litigation, arbitration, mediation, and antitrust matters. He represents national and regional businesses in complex disputes in federal and state courts and is a certified mediator and court-approved arbitrator.

Jon graduated first in his class from the University of Florida Levin College of Law, where he served as Editor in Chief of the Florida Law Review, and is a Rhodes Scholar finalist. He clerked for Chief Judge Anne Conway of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

Prior to attending law school, Jon was involved in public service at both the national and state level. This included working as an aide to a Congressman, serving as a press intern for a U.S. Senator, and drafting state legislation in Florida.

Jon is recognized for his pragmatic, research-driven approach and has received numerous honors, including The Best Lawyers in America® and Super Lawyers.

He is active in civic and community service and mentors law students and young professionals, reflecting his commitment to fostering the next generation of civic and legal leaders.