

Florida, which was the address for the Manatee County Supervisor of Elections' Office. This Notice was signed for by an individual at the Supervisor of Elections' Office—but not by Appellant—on August 18, 2020.

4. On August 20, 2020, the Commission on Ethics mailed Appellant a postcard intended to remind her of her obligation to file a 2019 CE Form 1. The Commission mailed the postcard to the same P.O. Box 1000, Bradenton address.

5. On September 9, 2020, the Commission sent Appellant a courtesy notice indicating that fines were beginning to accrue as her 2019 CE Form 1 had not been received. The notice was sent to the same P.O. Box 1000, Bradenton address.

6. Ten days later, on September 19, 2020, Appellant submitted her 2019 CE Form 1 to the Commission on Ethics, which accepted it on behalf of the Supervisor of Elections.

7. Given the date on which Appellant submitted the 2019 CE Form 1, which was eighteen days after the grace period for filing expired, the total amount of the automatic fine levied against her was $450.

8. On September 22, 2020, Appellant submitted to the Commission her appeal of the automatic fine that would be assessed against her. In the appeal, Appellant indicated she had retired in February 2020, and she never received the notices to file the 2019 CE Form 1 as they were sent to a Manatee County Government Office and were not forwarded to her home address. She stated that once she finally received notice of her filing obligation—which occurred apparently when the County mailed to her the courtesy notice from September 9, 2020—she completed and mailed the Form to the Commission on the next day.

9. The Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Assessment of her Automatic Fine on March 16, 2021. The Notice was sent to a new address—3206 52nd Circle East, Palmetto, Florida.

It indicated the total of Appellant's accrued automatic fine, and included a notice of the right to appeal the fine, stating that the appeal had to be received by the Commission by April 15, 2021. In a subsequent correspondence, the Commission acknowledged Appellant's appeal had already been received.

Conclusions of Law

10. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

11. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

12. Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, states:

Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

13. Here, three notices were sent to Appellant of her filing obligation prior to the expiration of the grace period on September 1, 2020. At least two of these notices—namely the certified notice and the Commission's postcard—were sent to an address for a Manatee County Government building. Appellant claims she did not timely receive them because, by that point in 2020, she had retired and the County failed to forward them to her home address. There is no evidence disputing Appellant's claim that she did not receive timely notice of her filing obligation. Indeed, tracking information from the USPS indicates the certified notice was signed for by an employee of the Manatee County Supervisor of Elections, but not by Appellant. Because there is no evidence showing Appellant received timely notice of her filing obligation, and considering her claim that she was not present at the location where the notices were sent, there are "unusual circumstances" here that justify waiving the $450 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $450.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, July 23, 2021.

Dear Sir:

I am writing to request a waiver of any, and all, penalties for not filing my 2019 Form 1 in a timely manner. I retired in February of this year and this requirement slipped my mind.

The reminder notice that was sent earlier this year by your office, referenced in the attached letter, was sent to Manatee County Government and unfortunately, probably due to the pandemic and work from home, no one there forwarded it to my home address. My first notice of this came in the mail yesterday, September 18, 2020. I immediately completed and have enclosed the required Form 1 with this correspondence.

Again, I apologize for this oversight, but due to the circumstances am requesting a waiver of the penalty. Should you have any questions, or require any additional information, please contact me via email at twebb71711@yahoo.com or by phone at 941.721.2161.

Respectfully,

Theresa G. Webb

RE: Financial Disclosure (Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests -- 2019)

Earlier this year, you were noticed of your obligation to file a Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year ending December 31, 2019. The grace period for filing expired on September 1, 2020 and according to records in our office you have not filed Form 1. I am writing to advise you, that pursuant to State law, an automatic fine of $25.00 per day for each day late ($1,500 maximum fine) is being assessed against you for your failure to timely file Form 1. Please file the form as soon as possible with the Pinellas County Supervisor of Elections.

Sincerely,

FILING INSTRUCTIONS:

If you were mailed the form by the Commission on Ethics or a County Supervisor of Elections for your annual disclosure filing, return the form to that location. To determine what category your position falls under, see page 3 of instructions.

Local officers/employees file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which they permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.) Form 1 filers who file with the Supervisor of Elections may file by mail or email. Contact your Supervisor of Elections for the mailing address or email address to use. Do not email your form to the Commission on Ethics, it will be returned.

State officers or specified state employees who file with the Commission on Ethics may file by mail or email. To file by mail, send the completed form to P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709; physical address: 325 John Knox Rd, Bldg E, Ste 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. To file with the Commission by email, scan your completed form and any attachments as a pdf (do not use any other format), send it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us and retain a copy for your records. Do not file by both mail and email. Choose only one filing method. Form 6s will not be accepted via email.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

MULTIPLE FILING UNNECESSARY: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2019.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2019 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2019 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2020. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2020. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2019 CE Form 1 was filed September 19, 2020 with the Supervisor of Elections for Pinellas County, you are fined the amount of $450.00 ($25.00 per day for 18 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before April 15, 2021. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2020, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
 - c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;

- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2019: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2019; or
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of you salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.
