BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re JEANNE LANE, ) Financial Disclosure Appeal No. FD 20-031 ) Appellant. )
) Final Order No. )

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on July 22, 2022, on the timely appeal of the Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, the Appellant is employed by the Florida Department of Health's (DOH) Central Office in a position requiring the filing of a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2019. In 2020, the designated due date for submitting a 2019 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 1, 2020, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2020.

2. On May 19, 2020, the Commission on Ethics mailed Appellant a 2019 CE Form 1. The 2019 CE Form 1 was sent to Appellant at 2209 Glenwood Ln, Tallahassee, FL 32308.
3. On July 31, 2020, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Delinquency by certified mail. This Notice was sent to Appellant at the same 2209 Glenwood Lane address.

4. On August 20, 2020, the Commission mailed Appellant a postcard intended to remind her of her obligation to file a 2019 CE Form 1. The Commission mailed the postcard to the same 2209 Glenwood Lane Address.

5. On September 8, 2020, the Commission sent Appellant a courtesy notice indicating that fines were beginning to accrue as her 2019 CE Form 1 had not been received. The notice was sent to the same 2209 Glenwood Lane address.

6. On September 11, 2020, Commission staff sent to the Appellant an email reminding her of the filing obligation regarding the 2019 CE Form 1 and advising her that fines in the amount of $25 a day had begun to accrue. On the same day the Appellant contacted the Commission via telephone, advised the Commission staff that the reason for the delay in the filing of her 2019 CE Form 1 was caused by the unforeseen illness of her mother and that she intended to file the 2019 CE Form 1 that day. Pursuant to her request via telephone, the Commission staff provided Appellant with a blank 2019 CE Form 1 via email.

7. On September 29, 2020, Appellant submitted her 2019 CE Form 1 to the Commission. Given the date on which Appellant submitted the 2019 CE Form 1, which was twenty-nine days after the grace period for filing expired, the total amount of the automatic fine levied against her was $700.

8. On March 16, 2021, the Appellant was mailed a Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine apprising her of the fine amount and of the manner by which automatic fines may be appealed.

9. On April 15, 2021, Appellant submitted her appeal to the Commission via letter. In her appeal letter the Appellant stated that she failed to timely file the 2019 CE Form 1 due to a series of unusual circumstances which occurred during the disclosure period including her husband contracting COVID-19 and Appellant's mother being hospitalized for an unforeseen illness, which required that Appellant provide at home care for her mother after she was discharged from the hospital as the primary care giver. Appellant further stated that the unexpected illnesses of her family members and the care she was required to provide associated therewith led to the late filing of her 2019 CE Form 1. In support of her appeal Appellant also included a timeline of events associated with the illnesses, hospitalization, and rehabilitative care of her mother and also her husband. Appellant also attached a Medicare summary indicating the Appellant and/or her family members did receive medical care during the financial disclosure filing period and immediately preceding the expiration of the penalty-free grace period on September 1, 2020.

Conclusions of Law

10. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

11. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

12. Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, states:

    Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice.
if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

13. Based on the merits, the Appellant's basis for appealing the fine is that her mother and her husband suffered unforeseen illnesses during the disclosure period, necessitating Appellant's provision of medical care prior to the expiration of the penalty free grace period.

14. On June 8, 2022, the Commission sent the Appellant an email asking for clarification over whether she was actively working with the DOH between the reporting period of July through September 2020 or if she was on leave due to her mother and husband's sickness. The Commission also asked Appellant if there were any unusual circumstances aside from the ones she listed in the appeal that prevented her from receiving the notices sent by the Commission. The Appellant never responded to the Commission's email.

15. Because there is no evidence to support the Appellant's claim that she did not receive any notices to timely file her 2019 CE Form 1, there are no "unusual circumstances" here that justify waiving the $700 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby affirms the assessed fine of $700 and dismisses the appeal. The fine shall be paid to the Commission on Ethics, P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, within 30 days of the date this order is rendered, unless other payment arrangements are made by contacting Kimberly Holmes, Financial Disclosure Coordinator, at the address above or by telephone at (850) 488-7864.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, April 22, 2022.
THIS ORDER CONSTITUTES FINAL AGENCY ACTION. ANY PARTY WHO IS ADVERSELY AFFECTED BY THIS ORDER HAS THE RIGHT TO SEEK JUDICIAL REVIEW UNDER SECTION 120.68, AND SECTION 112.3241, FLORIDA STATUTES, BY FILING A NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL PURSUANT TO RULE 9.110 FLORIDA RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE, WITH THE CLERK OF THE COMMISSION ON ETHICS, AT EITHER 325 JOHN KNOX ROAD, BUILDING E, SUITE 200, TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA 32303 OR P.O. DRAWER 15709, TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA 32317-5709; AND BY FILING A COPY OF THE NOTICE OF APPEAL ATTACHED TO WHICH IS A CONFORMED COPY OF THE ORDER DESIGNATED IN THE NOTICE OF APPEAL ACCOMPANIED BY THE APPLICABLE FILING FEES WITH THE APPROPRIATE DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL. THE NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE APPEAL MUST BE FILED WITHIN 30 DAYS OF THE DATE THIS ORDER IS RENDERED.

Re: Appeal due to Unusual Circumstances

I overlooked and forgot to file the CE form after the extended due date due to a series of unusual circumstances during 2020 which included: my husband contracting COVID-19, my mother being hospitalized for Sepsis and requiring follow up care, my younger brother’s ongoing mental health and substance abuse occurrences. These events exacted a huge physical and psychological toll on me, as I was the primary care giver throughout my mother’s and husband’s recovery, and providing assistance to my younger brother, all the while working full time at the Department of Health – Central Office. I submitted the CE form after the extended due date, due to unusual circumstances related to family illness. The following is a chronological sequence of events during 2020.

December 25, 2019 – November 2020. My mother is 86 years old, a Type II diabetic, has hypothyroidism, experiences irrational behavior and cannot be left alone for more than a few hours. My mother contracted Sepsis from a Urinary Tract Infection and had to be hospitalized for 5 days, December 20 – December 24, 2019. She returned to my home when she was released from the hospital to continue her intravenous infection control and begin physical therapy. I was trained by the “home nurse” to give my mother her daily infusion of antibiotics which began on January 1, 2020 and completed on January 21, 2020. My mother required constant care and assistance for bathing, dressing and meal preparation as she was weak in her limbs and had limited mobility due to the infection. My sister who was visiting from overseas during that time and I shared these duties. My mother underwent six weeks of physical therapy at home two times a day to regain her balance and strength to walk and care for herself. My sister and I shared these duties all the while I was working full time in my office at the Department of Health. My sister departed for her home in the Seychelles the end of February. I provided my mother’s care from the end of February thru mid-November 2020, until she returned to the Seychelles and COVID flight restrictions had been eased. During this time in 2020, I accompanied my mother to multiple medical appointments, managed her taking her prescription medications, did her laundry, cleaned her bathroom and bedroom, and prepared at least one of her meals daily.
My younger brother is a veteran and homeless, due to his mental health and substance abuse issues he is dealing with, and lives in Fort Walton, Florida area. He has been jailed more than 20 times over the past 16 years for reasons such as trespassing and he has completed multiple in-patient rehabilitation programs. During this past year, 2020, I was called by members of the Sacred Heart Hospital Emergency Department that my brother was there, several times and also by the local police asking for family assistance. Although I was not told why he was at the hospital I knew it was most likely from drinking alcohol. These calls were very upsetting to me and especially my mother and they weigh heavily on our minds. Sometimes I would get called twice a week. I have attended Al Anon and mental health and substance addiction presentations for family members.

Dec 25, 2019 -mid Feb 2020. As my mother’s care giver during 2020 when she was living with me and my family, I administered her daily intravenous fluids of antibiotics for two weeks after being discharged from the hospital on December 24, 2019. I also assisted my mother with her physical therapy to regain strength to walk on her own. I was assisted by my sister who was visiting at that time from overseas. I prepared and served her meals, assisted with bathing, dressing. I managed and administered her diabetic and thyroid medications.

Feb 15 – Nov 2020. I continued to manage and administer my mother’s diabetic and thyroid medications daily, prepare meals, take her to her medical appointments, launder her clothes.

July 28, 2020. My husband tested positive for COVID-19 and this required immediate relocation of my mother to my older brother’s residence in Destin, Florida. I became my husband’s care giver during our two-week quarantine period and the following four weeks of his extended recovery. Although he did not require hospitalization, he was very fatigued and weak. He has now made a full recovery.

My mother moved back into our home in early September 2020, and I became my mother’s care giver again. She stayed with us until November 17, 2020 when she departed for her home in the Seychelles.

Attached are the following supporting documents:

a) Anne Lane (mother), TMH patient account information with hospitalization dates
b) Anne Lane (mother), Medicare summary notice which includes physical therapy and skilled nursing services provided
c) Bob Smith (husband), COVID-19 positive test results

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jeanne Lane

Definitions of Columns

Service Approved?: This column tells you if Medicare covered the home health service.

Amount Provider Charged: This is your provider's fee for this service.

Medicare-Approved Amount: This is the amount a provider can be paid for a Medicare service. It may be less than the actual amount the provider charged.

Your provider has agreed to accept this amount as full payment for covered services. Medicare usually pays 80% of the Medicare-approved amount.

Amount Medicare Paid: This is the amount Medicare paid the provider. This is usually 80% of the Medicare approved amount.

Maximum You May Be Billed: This is the total amount the provider is allowed to bill you. This is usually $0. For durable medical equipment, it can include 20% of the Medicare-approved amount. If you have Medicare Supplement Insurance (Medigap policy) or other insurance, it may pay all or part of this amount.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

Multiple Filing Unnecessary: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

When to File: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2019.
NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2019 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2019 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2020. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2020. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2019 CE Form 1 was filed September 29, 2020 with the Commission on Ethics, you are fined the amount of $700.00 ($25.00 per day for 28 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.

2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.

3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.

4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before April 15, 2021. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.

5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that would allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2020, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
   a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
   b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
   c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;

e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2019: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2019; or

f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.

6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of you salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

Good evening Ms. Lane:

By way of introduction, my name is Suhail Chhabra and I am assigned to your Financial Disclosure Appeal 20-031 with the FL Commission on Ethics. I have the following preliminary queries for you which will enable me to proceed with your matter. Please answer them to the best of your knowledge and as accurately as possible:

1. During the disclosure reporting period of July through September of 2020, were you actively working (in person or remotely) with the DOH or were you on leave to tend to the sickness of your mother and your husband?

2. If not, were there any other circumstances other than the ones that you have already mentioned in your appeal that kept you from filing the financial disclosure form within the allotted grace period of filing?

Please answer these questions as soon as you can, at your convenience, so that I can proceed with making a staff recommendation to the Commission. If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Suhail Chhabra

Importance: High Good Morning, We have not received your Form 1 2019 Financial Disclosure filing based off your service with Department of Health. You are now being fined $25.00 per day with a maximum fine of up to $1500.00. Additionally, individuals who accrue the maximum fine and fail to file the required form are subject to an investigation to determine whether the failure to file was willful. If the Commission determines the failure to file was willful, the statute requires the Commission recommend the individual be removed from public office or public employment. Form is attached, please complete and remit today! The form can be submitted via email, see instructions on page two of the form.
