FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, on its own motion, meeting in public session on July 28, 2023, in the matter of Jayson Iroff (Appellant), pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant was a Chief Financial Officer at Miami Dade College, a position requiring the filing of a 2021 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2021. The designated due date for submitting a 2021 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 1, 2022, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2022.
2. On May 27, 2022, the Miami-Dade Supervisor of Elections mailed a copy of the 2021 CE Form 1 to Appellant at 21718 Cromwell Circle, Boca Raton, FL 33486.
3. On July 29, 2022, the Miami-Dade Supervisor of Elections mailed Appellant a delinquency notice by certified mail to the 21718 Cromwell Circle address. Postal records indicate this was returned to the Miami Dade County Elections Department on October 18, 2022, stating "Return to Sender," "unclaimed," and "unable to forward."

4. On August 18, 2022, the Commission mailed Appellant a courtesy postcard reminder of his obligation to file the 2021 CE Form 1. This was sent to the 21718 Cromwell Circle address.

5. On September 13, 2022, the Commission mailed Appellant a courtesy notice of fines accruing to the 21718 Cromwell Circle address.

6. On January 23, 2023, the Commission e-mailed Appellant a Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine of $1,500 at jiroff@mdc.edu. The notice was attached to the email. In the body of this email, Commission staff wrote: "Attached is the fine assessment letters for form years 2020 & 2021. Fines can be appealed." The notice also included information on how to appeal the fine, specifying that the appeal was due on February 22, 2023. This notice also was sent to the 21718 Cromwell Circle address.

7. Eight days later, on January 31, 2023, the Commission received Appellant's 2021 CE Form 1 disclosure.

8. On January 31, 2023, Appellant also paid his $1,500 fine to the Commission.

9. On April 27, 2023, Appellant was contacted by Commission staff by phone. During that conversation, he stated that he thought that he did not need to file an appeal because he paid the fine. Appellant indicated on this phone call that he would like to file an appeal.

10. On May 3, 2023, at Appellant's request, the Commission resent Appellant a notice of his appellate rights, with a due date for the appeal on June 2, 2023.

11. On May 3, 2023, the Commission received Appellant's appeal form.

12. In the appeal, Appellant stated that his reason for appealing was lack of notice. Specifically, Appellant alleged that notices of his filing obligation were sent to a different address than his home address so he did not receive them. In the appeal, Appellant listed his home address as 21718 Cromwell Circle, Boca Raton, FL 33486.

Conclusions of Law

13. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

14. Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, states:

Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

15. Appellant's appeal was not timely. The Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine specified a deadline of February 22, 2023. The evidence demonstrates that Appellant did receive the notice of his appellate rights, but opted not to appeal. Firstly, the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine contains instructions for how to pay the fine, which Appellant did eight days after the notice was sent. Secondly, Appellant indicated to Commission staff that he thought he did not need to appeal because he had paid his fine, indicating he had considered and dismissed the idea.

16. "An elementary and fundamental requirement of due process in any proceeding which is to be accorded finality is notice reasonably calculated, under all the circumstances, to apprise interested parties of the pendency of the action and to afford them an opportunity to present their objections." Mullane v. Cent. Hanover Bank, 339 U.S. 306, 314, 70 S.Ct.652, 94 L.Eed.865 (1950).

17. We find that Appellant was provided notice of his appellate rights and of his opportunity to be heard and appealed late despite that notice. Under the circumstances in this case, therefore, Appellant was provided adequate notice of his ability to file a timely appeal, and afforded due process of law. Section 120.569(2)(c), Florida Statutes, provides that a petition shall be dismissed if it has been untimely filed. In this case, Appellant did not file a timely appeal of the fine assessed against him. As a result, the appeal is dismissed as untimely. We make this conclusion without reaching the question of whether "unusual circumstances" existed to prevent Appellant's timely filing.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby affirms the assessed fine of $1,500 and dismisses the appeal. Because Appellant has already paid his fine in full, no further payment is necessary.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2021 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2021 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2022. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2022. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, up to the maximum fine of $1,500.00 (60 days late), pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2021 CE Form 1 has not been filed with the Supervisor of Elections for Miami-Dade County within the 60 days of the grace period date (September 1, 2022), you have accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.00. This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before February 22, 2023. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2022, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
  - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
  - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2021: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2021; or
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.
