FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on July 26, 2024, in the matter of Gina McDowell, pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant served as the Supervisor of Elections of Liberty County, a position that requires the filing of a CE Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests, for the year 2020. The designated due date for submitting a 2020 CE Form 6 annual filing was July 1, 2021, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2021.

2. On May 26, 2021, the Commission on Ethics sent Appellant a 2020 CE Form 6. The notice was sent to Appellant at 12998 NW Hoecake Road, Bristol, Florida 32321.

3. On July 30, 2021, the Commission on Ethics sent Appellant a Notice of Delinquency by certified mail. This notice was sent to Appellant at the 12998 NW Hoecake Road address.

4. On August 19, 2021, the Commission mailed Appellant a courtesy postcard, which was intended to remind her of her obligation to file a 2020 CE Form 6. The Commission mailed the postcard to the 12998 NW Hoecake Road address.

5. On August 23, 2021, the certified notice was returned by the USPS marked "unclaimed."

6. On August 27, 2021, a Commission staff person contacted the Supervisor of Elections Office in Liberty County and was told that Appellant had been removed from office.

7. On September 8, 2021, seven days after the grace period had expired, the Commission mailed Appellant a courtesy notice informing her that her 2020 CE Form 6 had not been received and that she was being fined $25 per day, up to a maximum of $1,500. The Commission mailed this notice to the 12998 NW Hoecake Road address.

8. On September 16, 2021, the Commission received Appellant's 2020 CE Form 6.

9. On September 13, 2023, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine by certified mail to the 12998 NW Hoecake Road address. This notice indicated that Appellant had accrued a $375 fine and informed her of her right to appeal the fine. It stated that the appeal had to be received by the Commission by October 13, 2023, to be considered timely. This notice was sent to Appellant at the 12998 NW Hoecake Road address.

10. On October 12, 2023, the Commission received Appellant's Appeal of Automatic Fine for Form Year 2020.

11. In the appeal, Appellant states that she was late in filing her 2020 CE Form 6 because she was "going through" three lawsuits (one personal and two related to the Supervisor of Elections position), which involved a disgruntled employee and which were emotionally and mentally challenging. She also claimed lack of notice, stating that she did not remember receiving any notification of the late filing.

Conclusions of Law

12. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

13. Section 112.3144(8)(f)2., Florida Statutes, states:

2. Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

14. Commission Rule 34-8.215, F.A.C., defines "unusual circumstances" as follows:

uncommon, rare or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements. Circumstances which allow for time in which to take those steps necessary to assure compliance with the filing requirements shall be deemed not to constitute unusual circumstances.

15. Appellant bases the appeal of her fine, in part, on her assertion that she did not receive notice that her 2020 CE Form 6 was late. In that the Notice of Delinquency, the only document sent to her certified prior to the expiration of the grace period, was returned marked "unclaimed" and Appellant asserts that she did not receive notice that her 2020 CE Form 6 was late, there is no evidence that Appellant personally received notice of her filing obligation before the fines began to accrue. The Commission has found lack of notice to constitute "unusual circumstances," which would justify waiving a fine.¹

16. Due to the information provided to the Commission, including postal records, we find Appellant's reason for appealing to constitute "unusual circumstances" that justify waiving the $375 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $375.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2020 CE Form 6, Full And Public Disclosure Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2020 CE Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2021. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2021. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2020 CE Form 6 was filed September 16, 2021 with the Commission on Ethics, you are fined the amount of $375.00 ($25.00 per day for 15 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3144(8)(f)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.015, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before October 13, 2023. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 6 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.015(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2021, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
 - c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;

- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 6F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 6 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2020: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2020;
OR
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.
