FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on June 7, 2024, on the timely appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant has not requested a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to the information provided to the Commission, Appellant served as an Assistant State Attorney for the State of Florida, Office of the State Attorney, 16th Circuit, a position that required the filing of a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2020. In 2021, the designated due date for submitting a 2020 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 1, 2021, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2021.

2. On May 26, 2021, the Commission on Ethics sent Appellant a 2020 CE Form 1. The mailing was sent to Appellant at 423 Caribbean Drive East, Summerland Key, Florida.

3. On July 30, 2021, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Delinquency by certified mail. The Notice was sent to Appellant at the same Caribbean Drive East address. Records from the United States Postal Service indicate the certified mailing was never delivered.¹

4. On August 19, 2021, the Commission mailed Appellant a postcard intended to remind him of his obligation to file a 2020 CE Form 1. The Commission mailed the postcard to Appellant at the Caribbean Drive East address.

5. On September 1, 2021, the Commission sent Appellant an email indicating that the agency had not yet received his 2020 CE Form 1, and that fines would begin to accrue if he did not file by the close of business that day.

6. One week later, on September 8, 2021, the Commission mailed Appellant a courtesy notice stating that fines had begun to accrue. The notice was sent to the same Caribbean Drive East address.

7. The Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine by certified mail on September 27, 2023. This mailing—sent to the Caribbean Drive East address—indicated the total of Appellant's accrued automatic fine, and included a notice of the right to appeal the fine, stating that the appeal had to be received by the Commission by October 23, 2023, to be considered timely.

8. The total amount of the automatic fine levied against Appellant was $1,500.

9. The Commission received Appellant's 2020 CE Form 1 on October 19, 2023.

10. The next day, October 20, 2023, the Commission received Appellant's Appeal of Automatic Fine for Form Year 2020. In the appeal, Appellant asserts he was "experiencing several hardships" during the time in which the 2020 CE Form 1 was due. In particular, Appellant indicates his father's declining health had affected his ability to maintain his professional obligations, and, ultimately, in April 2021, he resigned from the State Attorney's Office. Appellant emphasizes that, since then, he has left the practice of law and has been working as an HVAC technician. Because he no longer was in his filing position, Appellant writes he believed his "professional responsibilities were satisfied" and that he "did not need to file anything further[.]" Appellant indicates he currently is "struggling financially" and that, if the Commission were to affirm the $1,500 fine, he would be unable to pay his rent and likely would have to move. He also emphasizes he "immediately took action" upon receiving the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine, and that he has timely filed his disclosure forms in all prior years.²

Conclusions of Law

11. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

12. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

13. Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, states:

Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

14. Here, four notices were sent to Appellant of his filing obligation prior to the expiration of the grace period at the close of business on September 1, 2021, including the email sent on that date. The second of these notices was sent by certified mail, although records from the United States Postal Service indicate it was never delivered. Similarly, there is no evidence that Appellant received the other notices sent prior the close of the grace period. Because there is no evidence showing Appellant received timely notice of his filing obligation, and considering that he was undergoing personal hardships during the filing period that led to him leaving State employment, there are "unusual circumstances" here that justify waiving the $1,500 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby waives the assessed fine of $1,500.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, June 7, 2024.

- f. Not required to file (Explain in Part C and provide documentation that supports reason for not required to file)

PART C: DETAILED EXPLANATION OF YOUR APPEAL

Please provide a detailed explanation of your appeal, including why each option you selected in Part B is applicable to you. You may use the space provided and/or attach additional pages.

Durning the 2020 reporting year and early into 2021, I was experiencing several hardships. My father's declining health had a deep impact on my ability to maintain personal and professional obligations. Also, in 2020 and into 2021, my employment drastically shifted from in person to remote working environments due to the Covid pandemic. It was extremely difficult for me to keep documents and my obligations in order. With my personal hardships, I soon resigned from the SAO. (see Attached)

Attachment 1 - Continuation of Part "C" Detailed Explanation of Fine Appeal:

After my resignation from the State Attorney's Office in April 2021, I further struggled with personal relationships as well as financially. This led to my inability to focus on completing any professional obligations. I did not intentionally or willfully fail to file. I do not have any reason not to file this financial disclosure.

Unfortunately, I thought my minimum professional responsibilities were satisfied when I left my employment. I further believed that I did not need to file anything further after leaving my employment. After leaving the Office of the State Attorney, I was not practicing law and began working as an HVAC technician.

It was a big shift in career with no overlap regarding financial disclosure requirements. Working as an HVAC technician, I did not have any prior professional responsibilities in mind.

Working in the HVAC industry has allowed me to spend the necessary time with my family and regain focus. I have been working towards getting all aspects of my personal life in healthy order.

That being said, once I received the Notice Of Assessment Of Automatic Fine, I immediately took action to find any and all of my documents regarding this matter. I have sent a completed 2020 Form 1, as well as a completed form 1F for the 2021 period, as I was unsure if that was still outstanding or required.

I deeply apologize for my inability to meet the necessary filing requirements for the 2020 disclosure period. It was a very difficult time in my life and one that I have learned a great deal from.

Like many people today, I am still struggling financially. I humbly ask for a waiver of the Automatic Fine. If required to pay the Automatic Fine, I will be unable to pay my rent and will likely be forced to move which will greatly impact my ability to continue working at my place of employment.

I have not failed to file my required disclosure documents in any of the years prior to the 2020 disclosure period at issue. Respectfully, I plead that you consider waving the Automatic Fine under these circumstances. Thank you for your kind consideration.

Respectfully,

Glenn D. Hasson

FILING INSTRUCTIONS:

If you were mailed the form by the Commission on Ethics or a County Supervisor of Elections for your annual disclosure filing, return the form to that location. To determine what category your position falls under, see page 3 of instructions.

Local officers/employees file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which they permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.) Form 1 filers who file with the Supervisor of Elections may file by mail or email. Contact your Supervisor of Elections for the mailing address or email address to use. Do not email your form to the Commission on Ethics. It will be returned.

State officers or specified state employees who file with the Commission on Ethics may file by mail or email. To file by mail, send the completed form to P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709; physical address: 325 John Knox Rd, Bldg E, Ste 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. To file with the Commission by email, scan your completed form and any attachments as a pdf (do not use any other format), send it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us and retain a copy for your records. Do not file by both mail and email. Choose only one filing method. Form 6s will not be accepted via email.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

MULTIPLE FILING UNNECESSARY: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2020.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2020 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2020 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2021. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2021. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, up to the maximum fine of $1,500.00 (60 days late), pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes

Inasmuch as your 2020 CE Form 1 has not been filed with the Commission on Ethics within the 60 days of the grace period date (September 1, 2021), you have accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.00. This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before October 23, 2023. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2021, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2020: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2020; or
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

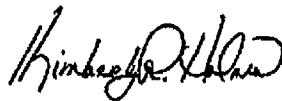

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

 Reminder Action
 Required CE Form Good morning Glenn Hasson, Our records indicate that we have not received your Form

1 for year 2020. I have attached a copy of the Form 1. Once you have completed your form, you can email it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us Earlier this year, you were notified of your obligation to file a CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year ending December 31, 2020. The grace period for filing this form will expire on September 1, 2021 at 5 p.m., and according to our records, you still have not filed your CE Form 1. Pursuant to State law, an automatic fine of $25 per day for each day late (up to a maximum fine of $1,500) will be assessed against you if your CE Form 1 is not received by September 1, 2021. Failure to file can result in removal from public office or employment. Please file your CE Form 1 immediately. Thank you, Kathryn Steverson Assistant to the Executive Director Florida Commission on Ethics P.O.
