REPORT OF INVESTIGATION
COMPLAINT NO. 21-188

(1) The Respondent, John Kinsey, serves as a member of the Board of Supervisors of Creekside at Twin Creeks Community Development District, and as a member of the Board of Supervisors of the Twin Creeks North Community Development District, positions requiring the annual filing of a CE Form 1, "Statement of Financial Interests."

(2) The Respondent failed or refused to file a 2018 CE Form 1 within 60 days of September 3, 2019, the date automatic fines of $25 per day began to accrue under Section 112.3145(7)(f) [now Section 112.3145(8)(g)], Florida Statutes. As of November 2, 2019, the Respondent accrued the maximum fine ($1,500) authorized under Section 112.3145(7)(f) [now Section 112.3145(8)(g)], Florida Statutes.

(3) In addition, during the year 2019, the Respondent continued to serve in both of the aforementioned positions, which required the filing of a 2019 CE Form 1, "Statement of Financial Interests." However, the Respondent failed or refused to file a 2019 CE Form 1, on or before September 1, 2020, the date automatic fines of $25 per day began to accrue under Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes. As of October 31, 2020, the Respondent accrued the maximum fine ($1,500) authorized under Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

(4) Pursuant to Section 112.3145(9)(c) [formerly Section 112.3145(8)(c)], Florida Statutes, if a person holding public office or public employment fails or refuses to file an annual statement for any year in which the person received notice from the Commission on Ethics (Commission) regarding the failure to file and has accrued the maximum automatic fine authorized under Section 112.3145(8)(g), regardless of whether the fine imposed was paid or collected, the Commission shall initiate an investigation and conduct a public hearing without receipt of a complaint to determine whether the person's failure to file was willful.

(5) Ms. Daphne Gillyard, the Director of Administrative Services for Wrathell, Hunt, & Associates, LLC, who serves as the Financial Disclosure Coordinator for both Community Development Districts, verified by telephone that the Respondent continues to serve as the Chairman (Seat 1) of the Board of Supervisors for both of the Community Development Districts. She stated he became the Chair for both Districts in 2016. Ms. Gillyard noted that the Board of Supervisors for both Community Development Districts meet on the same date. The websites for both Districts reflect that the Board of Supervisors consist of five members on each Board. The websites further reflect that the Boards for both Districts share four of the same members: the Respondent; his son, Mr. Bryan Kinsey; Mr. Steven Jordan; and Mr. Jared Bouskila.

2018 CE Form 1 Investigative Findings

(6) In May 2019, the Broward County Supervisor of Elections (BCSOE) mailed the Respondent an initial filing packet containing a blank 2018 CE Form 1 and information regarding the Respondent's obligation to file financial disclosure. All correspondence mailed to the Respondent from the BCSOE was mailed to 16772 Strasbourg Lane, Delray Beach, Florida, 33446.

(7) On July 30, 2019, the BCSOE mailed the Respondent a "Delinquency Notice" by certified mail. The notice appears to have been signed for; however, the signature is illegible.

(8) On August 19, 2019, the Commission mailed the Respondent a courtesy postcard to remind him of his obligation to file a 2018 CE Form 1, and to inform the Respondent about potential fines if the disclosure form was not timely filed. All correspondence from the Commission to the Respondent pertaining to the 2018 CE Form 1 filing was mailed to 16772 Strasbourg Lane, Delray Beach, Florida, 33446-3698.

(9) On September 6, 2019, the Commission mailed the Respondent a "Courtesy Notice of Fines Accruing," (appended as Exhibit A) informing him that an automatic fine of $25 per day was accruing, as the 2018 CE Form 1 had not been received by the BCSOE.

(10) On March 19, 2021, the Commission levied a $1,500 fine against the Respondent.

(11) On July 19, 2021, the Commission sent the Respondent a "Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine," (appended as Exhibit B) by certified mail. The notice indicated the Respondent had accrued the maximum fine of $1,500, and included a notice of his right to appeal the fine. United States Postal Service (USPS) records reflect the above-referenced notice was delivered on July 23, 2021. The mail was signed for, however, the "Signature of the Recipient" (appended as Exhibit C) is not legible.

(12) On August 16, 2021, the Respondent submitted his 2018 CE Form 1 (appended as Exhibit D) to the Commission, and paid a $1,500 fine relative to his failure to timely file the 2018 CE Form 1.

(13) On March 30, 2022, after leaving two voicemails and receiving no response from the Respondent, this investigator was successful in reaching Mr. Kinsey via telephone. He stated he could not answer any questions because he was in line at a security checkpoint at an airport, but indicated he would return the call the following day. After receiving no return call the following day, this investigator left voicemail messages at 561-289-8552, on April 1, 2022, and April 4, 2022. However, the Respondent never returned either call. Mr. Kinsey is an attorney and a member of the Florida Bar. According to the Florida Bar records, the Respondent's mailing address is 16772 Strasbourg Lane, Delray Beach, and his office telephone number is listed as 561-289-8552. Palm Beach County Property Appraiser records reflect the Respondent purchased the property located at 16772 Strasbourg Lane on November 23, 2016, and this is his homesteaded property.

2019 CE Form 1 Investigative Findings

(14) On May 29, 2020, the BCSOE mailed the Respondent an initial filing packet containing a blank 2019 CE Form 1 and information regarding the Respondent's obligation to file financial disclosure. All correspondence from the BCSOE to the Respondent relative to his 2019 CE Form 1 was mailed to the Respondent's home address of 16772 Strasbourg Lane, Delray Beach, Florida, 33446.

(15) On July 30, 2020, the BCSOE mailed the Respondent a "Delinquency Notice" by certified mail. The certified mail receipt reflects that it was not signed and it appears the notice was not successfully delivered.

(16) On August 20, 2020, the Commission mailed the Respondent a courtesy postcard, to remind him of his obligation to file a 2019 CE Form 1, and to inform the Respondent about potential fines if the disclosure form was not timely filed. All correspondence from the Commission to the Respondent pertaining to his 2019 CE Form 1 was mailed to the Respondent's address at 16772 Strasbourg Lane, Delray Beach, Florida, 33446-3698.

(17) On September 9, 2020, the Commission mailed the Respondent a "Courtesy Notice of Fines Accruing," (appended as Exhibit E) informing the Respondent that an automatic fine of $25 per day was accruing, as the 2019 CE Form 1 had not been filed by the Respondent.

(18) On June 11, 2021, the Commission levied a $1,500 fine against the Respondent.

(19) On July 20, 2021, the Commission sent the Respondent a "Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine," by certified mail (appended as Exhibit F). The mailing indicated the Respondent had accrued the maximum fine of $1,500, and included a notice of his right to appeal the fine. This Notice was sent by certified mail in conjunction with the above-referenced 2018 Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine and was delivered on July 23, 2021. The certified mail receipt (appended as Exhibit G) reflects an unidentified individual signed for it.

(20) On August 16, 2021, the Respondent submitted his 2019 CE Form 1 (appended as Exhibit H), and paid a $1,500 fine relative to his failure to timely file the 2019 CE Form 1.

(21) Commission records reflect the Respondent previously was investigated for failure to file his 2016 (Complaint Number 18-159) and 2017 (Complaint Number 19-155) CE Form 1s. Regarding the 2016 CE Form 1, the Respondent claimed he did not timely file the disclosure form because he overlooked filing it as a result of medication he was taking, and also because he was away from his home where he received his mail from July through October 2017. On April 17, 2019, the Commission found probable cause to believe the Respondent willfully failed to timely file his 2016 CE Form 1, but took no further action due to the circumstances presented. Commission on Ethics records reflect the Respondent paid the $1,500 fine relative to his 2016 CE Form 1 on April 22, 2019, and filed the 2016 CE Form 1 on March 11, 2018.

(22) Regarding the Respondent's failure to timely file the 2017 CE Form 1, Commission records reflect that a "Determination of Investigative Jurisdiction and Order to Investigate," was issued by the Commission on October 22, 2019. A "Report of Investigation," was completed on November 7, 2019. The Report of Investigation notes that the Respondent refused to talk to the investigator when contacted about the 2017 CE Form 1. On January 24, 2020, the Commission found probable cause that the Respondent willfully failed or refused to timely file his 2017 CE Form 1. The matter subsequently was scheduled for a hearing before a Division of Administrative Hearings judge, and on March 2, 2020, Commission Advocate Elizabeth A. Miller submitted "Advocate's Motion to Cancel Final Hearing, Relinquish Jurisdiction, and Close File," citing as the reason that the Respondent tendered his resignation as Chairman and member of the Board of Supervisors of the Twin Creeks North Community Development District, thereby causing the Commission to lose jurisdiction in this matter. The Commission dismissed the complaint for lack of jurisdiction on June 5, 2020. The Respondent filed the 2017 CE Form 1 on March 11, 2019. The $1,500 fine associated with the untimely filing of his 2017 CE Form 1 was referred to a collection agency and the Respondent paid the fine on January 13, 2022.

(23) Financial Disclosure Coordinator Gillyard confirmed that the Respondent tendered his resignation from both Community Development Districts on February 28, 2020, with the stipulation that it would be "effective as of the time a quorum of the remaining members of the Board of Supervisors accept it at a duly noticed meeting of the Board of Supervisors." Ms. Gillyard provided a copy of the Respondent's resignation letters (appended as composite Exhibit I). The minutes of the May 19, 2020 Board of Supervisors' meetings for both Districts reflect that both Boards voted to accept the Respondent's resignation. Ms. Gillyard stated that the Respondent resigned and was reappointed back on the Board of Supervisors for both Community Development Districts on May 19, 2020 (the same day). She noted that the Respondent's current term for both District Boards ends in 2024.

(24) The minutes of the May 19, 2020 District meetings for both Districts (composite Exhibit J) reflect that the Respondent's resignation for both Districts was the "Third Order of Business" on the agenda for both meetings, and the "Fourth Order of Business" involved reappointing the Respondent back on the Board of Supervisors for each District. The minutes reflect that the Board took three minutes to accept the Respondent's resignation and subsequently reappoint him to the Board of Supervisors for Creekside at Twin Creeks. No time is noted in the minutes for Twin Creeks North May 19, 2020 meeting for how long it took the Board to accept the Respondent's resignation and reappoint him back on the Board.

(25) On May 19, 2020, after the Respondent was reappointed to the boards of the Creekside at Twin Creeks and the Twin Creeks North Community Development Districts, he filled out oaths of office forms (appended as Exhibit J, pages J7 and J16), on which he listed his address as 16772 Strasbourg Lane, Delray Beach, Florida, 33446.

(26) Commission records reflect the Respondent filed his 2020 CE Form 1 with the Broward County Supervisor of Elections on August 17, 2021.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2018 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2018 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2019. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 3, 2019. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, up to the maximum fine of $1,500.00 (60 days late), pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2018 CE Form 1 has not been filed with the Supervisor of Elections for Broward County within the 60 days of the grace period date (September 3, 2019), you have accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.00. This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before August 18, 2021.
NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 3, 2019, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

B1

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
 - d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
 - e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2018: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2018; or
 - f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

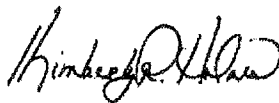

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

RE: Financial Disclosure (Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests -- 2019)

Earlier this year, you were noticed of your obligation to file a Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year ending December 31, 2019. The grace period for filing expired on September 1, 2020 and according to records in our office you have not filed Form 1. I am writing to advise you, that pursuant to State law, an automatic fine of $25.00 per day for each day late ($1,500 maximum fine) is being assessed against you for your failure to timely file Form 1. Please file the form as soon as possible with the Broward County Supervisor of Elections.

Sincerely,

Charles Christopher Anderson, III
Executive Director

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2019 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2019 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2020. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2020. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, up to the maximum fine of $1,500.00 (60 days late), pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2019 CE Form 1 has not been filed with the Supervisor of Elections for Broward County within the 60 days of the grace period date (September 1, 2020), you have accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.00. This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before August 19, 2021. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2020, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

F1

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2019: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2019; or
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.
