STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re SAMMY MCCOY	)	Financial Disclosure Appeal
	)	No. FD 23-009
Appellant.	)	Final Order No. XXX

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on April 24, 2026, on the appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(g), Florida Statutes (2022) (subsequently redesignated to Section 112.3144(8)(f), Florida Statutes (2025)). There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Financial disclosure in the form of an annual CE Form 6 Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests is required of certain public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government. Section 112.3144(8)(f) assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 6 Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown based on "unusual circumstances" contributing to the failure to file by the designated date. § 112.3144(8)(f)2.

Here, Appellant served as a member of the Hamilton County School Board, a position requiring the filing of a 2022 CE Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests, by the designated due date of July 3, 2023, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2023. §§ 112.3144(2)(b), (8)(c), Fla. Stat. (2023). Per the record, Appellant received an additional extension until November 30, 2023. Appellant filed his 2022 CE Form 6 on September 2, 2024, 277 days late, and has been assessed the maximum fine amount of $1500 ($25 a day for 60 days late).

Appellant alleges he failed to timely file his 2022 CE Form 6 for two reasons. First, he contends Hurricane Idalia hit Florida on August 30, 2023, and, as he operates a land clearing business, he was extremely busy with storm clean-up through December of 2023, noting his last FEMA invoice was October 6, 2023.

He also contends that he did not receive notice of his delinquency via e-mail, and alleges his public e-mail address has not functioned appropriately for a number of years. In support of his claim, he includes a letter from the Superintendent of Schools noting Appellant's e-mail address has not forwarded e-mails for the past two years. He also included screenshots of all of the e-mails he received from the Board Secretary, who appeared to be forwarding all of his public e-mails to his personal account from January of 2021 through September of 2024, and none of the e-mails appear to be reminders from the Commission or the Electronic Financial Disclosure Monitoring System.

Section 112.3144(8)(f)2. specifically states that the "failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address" does not amount to an "unusual circumstance" supportive of waiving the automatic fine. However, Appellant did not fail to monitor his e-mail address. Instead, it appears Appellant's public e-mail address was malfunctioning, as proven by screenshots and letters provided by Appellant. The technical issue with Appellant's e-mail address, as well as the destruction of Hurricane Idalia and Appellant's subsequent participation in ongoing cleanup efforts, amount to "unusual circumstances" that justify waiving the $1500 fine.

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby finds that unusual circumstances for failure to timely file have been demonstrated. We therefore waive the assessed fine of $1500.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on April 24, 2026.

Date Rendered

Jon M. Philipson
Chair, Florida Commission on Ethics

To whom it may concern:

I am writing to appeal the automatic fine in this matter. I am a school board member in Hamilton County. Hurricane Idalia hit on August 30, 2023 and my son Kyle McCoy and I operate a land clearing business. We have dump trucks, semis, and several pieces of heavy equipment. We were extremely busy with storm clean up throughout the tri county area. Our last FEMA invoice was 10/06/2023. There was a county and individual clean up that went on through December of 2023.

During this time, I had several different employees and office help that checked my post office box that I also use for this same business, which is McCoy Land Services, LLC. If a letter came in, it must have been misplaced.

In addition, my school board email has not worked properly in the last three years and I have been receiving emails only on my personal email which I am sending this reply from. Sherry Bush is our board secretary. There have been no emails sent to me by Ms. Bush. I have attached screen shots of all emails I have gotten from her and none were involving any emails from the commission on ethics.

I have also attached other documentation for your consideration of this appeal request.

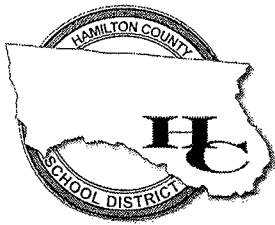

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Sammy McCoy

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2022 CE Form 6, Full And Public Disclosure Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2022 CE Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests, was due by July 3, 2023. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2023. You were provided a filing extension until November 30, 2023. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, up to the maximum fine of $1,500.00 (60 days late), pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f), Florida Statutes

Inasmuch as your 2022 CE Form 6 has not been filed with the Commission on Ethics within the 60 days of the filing extension due date (November 30, 2023), you have accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.00. This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3144(8)(f)2., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.015, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before September 25, 2024. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 6 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.015(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2023, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
 - d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 6F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 6 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
 - e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2022: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2022; or
 - f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

Hello, You have received this invitation to register with the Florida Commission on Ethics e-filing system (EFMS) because your name and contact information was provided to the Commission on Ethics, identifying you as a public officer or public employee with an annual requirement to file a Form 6 disclosure. Effective January 1, 2023, all Form 6, 6X, and 6F disclosures must be filed electronically. The Commission will no longer promulgate paper forms. You must use the following link to complete the registration process: https://disclosure.floridathics.gov/Account/Registration?token=AZIL4AJ6VERT3LM (Please note the link will expire in 14 days.) Once you are registered, always access e-filing from the "I am a Form 6 Filer" link. Your email address will be used to provide you with notifications about due dates and the filing process, as well as other important announcements for financial disclosure filers. If you wish to designate a different email address for communications regarding e-filing, you may do so in your User Profile which is accessible from your Dashboard in EFDMS. By law, you must keep an up-to-date email address in the e-filing system. Questions about why you are receiving this email should be directed to your agency coordinator whose name appears on your dashboard in EFDMS. Questions about the financial disclosure requirement, as well as how to complete the disclosure form should be directed to the Florida Commission on Ethics (850) 488-7864, disclosure@leg.state.fl.us. Do not reply to this email as it is generated automatically and electronically and cannot accept electronic replies. 09/02/2023 10:00 AM		Email	From: "Ethics FDMS Info" Sent: 09/02/2023 To: sammy.mccoy@hamiltonfl.com Subject: Notice of Assessed Fine Earlier this year, you were noticed of your obligation to file a Form 6, Full and Public Disclosure of Financial Interests, for the year ending December 31, 2022. The grace period for filing expired on July 3, 2023 and according to records in our office you have not filed Form 6. I am writing to advise you that pursuant to State law an automatic fine of 25.00 per day for each day late ($1,500 maximum fine) is being assessed against you for your failure to timely file Form 6. Please file the form as soon as possible. If you believe that you have filed your form already or that you are not required to file this year, contact our office so we can correct any mistakes. Florida Commission on Ethics 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200 Tallahassee, FL 32303	System
