

BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re JACK KERIGAN,	)	Financial Disclosure Appeal
	)	No. FD 24-001
Appellant.	)	Final Order No. XXX

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on April 24, 2026, on the appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes (2024). There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Financial disclosure in the form of an annual CE Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests is required of certain public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government. Section 112.3145(8)(f) assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown based on "unusual circumstances" contributing to the failure to file by the designated date. § 112.3145(8)(f)2.

Here, Appellant served as a member of the City of Mexico Beach Planning and Zoning Board, a position requiring the filing of a 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, by the designated due date of July 1, 2024, with a grace period ending on September 3, 2024. §§ 112.3145(2)(b), (8)(c), Fla. Stat. (2024). Appellant filed his 2023 CE Form 1 on December 27, 2024, 115 days late, and has been assessed the maximum fine amount of $1500 ($25 a day for 60 days late).

Appellant alleges he failed to timely file his 2023 CE Form 1 because he could not get the new electronic filing system, the Electronic Filing Data Management System (EFDMS), to work. Appellant contends he called the Commission for assistance in October of 2024 and still could not successfully complete the form. He then called once again at the end of December 2024 and was assisted by a Commission employee with completing his form digitally.

Appellant does not allege that he failed to receive notice of the requirement that he timely file his CE Form 1. Rather, he contends that he had trouble with the EFDMS system. He alleges that he did call the Commission for assistance, but admittedly did not call the Commission for assistance until after both the deadline and the grace period had passed. Appellant's difficulties with implementing the new technology, which were ultimately resolved by a phone call, do not amount to an "unusual circumstance" that would justify the waiver of a fine. § 112.3145(8)(f)2.

"Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby affirms the assessed fine of $1,500 and dismisses the appeal. The fine shall be paid to the Commission on Ethics, P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, within 30 days of the date this order is rendered, unless other payment arrangements are made by contacting Kimberly Holmes, Financial Disclosure Coordinator, at the address above or by telephone at (850) 488-7864."

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on April 24, 2026.

Date Rendered

PART B: GENERAL REASON(S) FOR YOUR APPEAL

Please choose any/all reasons that apply to your appeal.

I hereby appeal the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine on the following basis:

- a. ☐ Sickness or injury (Explain in Part C and attach a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of illness or injury)
- b. ☒ Technological issue (Explain in Part C and provide documentation that supports your assertion that an issue with technology, such as an unexpected lack of access to the Internet or a power outage, prevented timely filing)
- c. ☐ Left public position prior to December 31, 2023 (Explain in Part C and provide confirmation from agency that your office-holding/employment ended before 12/31/2023)
- d. ☐ Other unusual circumstance (Explain in Part C and provide documentation explaining uncommon, rare, or sudden occurrence that prevented timely filing)
- e. ☐ Not required to file (Explain in Part C and provide documentation that supports reason for not required to file)

PART C: DETAILED EXPLANATION OF YOUR APPEAL

Please provide a detailed explanation of your appeal. You may use the space provided and/or attach additional pages.

I could not get the new electronic filing system to work. I called and spoke with Jeremy, in October, and he explained what I needed to go do, but I couldn't figure it out. Today, Lynn Blais stayed on the line and walked me through it which was very helpful and seemed to work. I do not wish to continue in this volunteer Planning & Zoning role if you are pursuing a fine for this. The delay is related to your technology change.

OPTIONAL REQUEST FOR HEARING

☐ In addition to this written appeal, I specifically request to appear before the Commission in a hearing pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f)2 or Section 112.3145(8)(f)2, Florida Statutes. Commission meetings occur in Tallahassee.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2023 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2024. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 3, 2024. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2023 CE Form 1 was filed December 27, 2024 with the Commission on Ethics, you are fined the amount of $1500.00 ($25.00 per day for 115 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(f)2., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before February 3, 2025. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 3, 2024, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
 - d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
 - e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2023: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2023; or
 - f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

A Public Office is a Public Trust

Hello,

You have received this invitation to register in the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS) of the Florida Commission on Ethics e-filing system. Your name and contact information was provided to the Commission by your agency coordinator identifying you as a public officer or public employee with an annual requirement to file a financial disclosure form.

All financial disclosure forms (Form 1, 1X, and 1F) must be filed electronically. The Commission will no longer promulgate paper forms.

You must use the following link to complete the registration process:

<https://disclosure.floridaethics.gov/Account/Registration?token=T1K6D3HSSYBK1NB> (Please note the link will expire in 14 days.)

Once you are registered, always access e-filing from the I am a Filer link, even if you are a candidate for office.

By law, you must keep an up-to-date email address in the e-filing system. Your email address will be used to provide you with notifications about due dates and the filing process, as well as other important announcements for financial disclosure filers. If you wish to designate a different email address for communications regarding e-filing, you may do so in your User Profile which is accessible from your Dashboard in EFDMS.

Questions about why you are receiving this email should be directed to your agency coordinator whose name appears on your dashboard in EFDMS.

Questions about the financial disclosure requirement, as well as how to complete the disclosure form should be directed to the Florida Commission on Ethics (850) 488-7864 or 1-800-262-8824.
