Financial Disclosure Appeal
No. FD 24-004
Final Order No. XXX

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on April 24, 2026, on the appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes (2024). There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Financial disclosure in the form of an annual CE Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests is required of certain public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government. Section 112.3145(8)(f) assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown based on "unusual circumstances" contributing to the failure to file by the designated date. § 112.3145(8)(f)2.

Here, Appellant served as a member City of Dunnellon Planning Commission/Board of Adjustment, a position requiring the filing of a 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, by the designated due date of July 1, 2024, with a grace period ending on September 3, 2024. §§ 112.3145(2)(b), (8)(c), Fla. Stat. (2024). Appellant filed his 2023 CE Form 1 on September 24, 2024, 21 days late, and has been assessed the fine amount of $525 ($25 a day for 21 days late).

Appellant alleges he failed to timely file his 2023 CE Form 1 because he did not know that he had to file the 2023 CE Form 1. He contends the City of Dunnellon administration informed him he did not have to file, but then, four months later, told him he did have to file, so he resigned from his position in April of 2024 and believed that relieved him of the filing requirement. Appellant states he was then told in September by the City's administration that, despite his resignation, he still needed to file a 2023 CE Form 1, and he did.

Internal Commission records indicate the Electronic Financial Disclosure Monitoring System (EFDMS) sent Appellant multiple e-mails, beginning in May of 2024, advising him of his need to timely complete his CE Form 1 to the e-mail address martianman92@yahoo.com, which is the same e-mail address Appellant listed on his appeal form. After July 1, 2024, the Commission then sent multiple e-mails to the same e-mail address advising Appellant that his 2023 CE Form 1 had not been filed and that a fine would begin accruing after September 3, 2024.

Internal records also indicate Appellant called the Commission on August 2, 2024, because he had received from the Commission reminder postcards about his need to file the CE Form 1. During that phone call, he was advised that, though he resigned from his position in 2024, he was still required to complete a 2023 CE Form 1. He was also advised that if he did not timely file, he would be fined.

Regardless of Appellant's assumptions and interpretation of the law, the Commission provided Appellant with notice of his need to timely file a 2023 CE Form 1, and Appellant does not allege he did not receive notice. Appellant's misinterpretation of the law, standing alone, does not amount to an "unusual circumstance" as required to waive the automatic fine. § 112.3145(8)(f)2.

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby affirms the assessed fine of $525 and dismisses the appeal. The fine shall be paid to the Commission on Ethics, P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, within 30 days of the date this order is rendered, unless other payment arrangements are made by contacting Kimberly Holmes, Financial Disclosure Coordinator, at the address above or by telephone at (850) 488-7864.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on April 24, 2026.

Chair, Florida Commission on Ethics

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2023 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2024. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 3, 2024. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2023 CE Form 1 was filed September 24, 2024 with the Commission on Ethics, you are fined the amount of $525.00 ($25.00 per day for 21 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(f)2., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before May 2, 2025. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 3, 2024, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;
 - c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;

- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2023: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2023; or
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

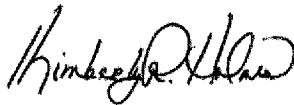

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

Description: Mr. Martian called because he keeps getting our post cards. He is no longer on the board as of a couple months ago. I explained to him that because he was still in the position on 12/31/23, he would still be required to complete. He absolutely refused and got loud. I also explained that he would be fined starting 9/3/24, and he said that he didn't care, wouldn't pay it, and then hung up on me.
