

BEFORE THE
STATE OF FLORIDA
COMMISSION ON ETHICS

In re ROBERT SCOTT BERGMAN,	)	Financial Disclosure Appeal
	)	No. FD 24-021
Appellant.	)	Final Order No. XXX

FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on April 24, 2026, on the appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes (2024). There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Financial disclosure in the form of an annual CE Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests is required of certain public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government. Section 112.3145(8)(f) assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown based on "unusual circumstances" contributing to the failure to file by the designated date. § 112.3145(8)(f)2.

Here, Appellant served as a member of Palm Bay Community Development District Board of Supervisors, a position requiring the filing of a 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, by the designated due date of July 1, 2024, with a grace period ending on September 3, 2024. §§ 112.3145(2)(b), (8)(c), Fla. Stat. (2024). Appellant filed his 2023 CE Form 1 on December 20, 2024, 108 days late, and has been assessed the maximum fine amount of $1500 ($25 a day for 108 days late).

Appellant first alleges he failed to timely file his 2023 CE Form 1 because the e-mail address on file was an old e-mail address that had become a junk mail folder for Appellant and was full. However, "the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address" does not amount to an "unusual circumstance" that would justify the waiver of a fine. § 112.3145(8)(f)2.

Appellant also contends he failed to timely file his 2023 CE Form 1 because his father unexpectedly passed away in January of 2024, and, after his father's passing, Appellant had to care for his mother, who suffered from progressive dementia. Ultimately, Appellant helped move his mother into an assisted living facility because of her continued mental decline, and then was responsible for managing her financial affairs, including the sale of his parents' home in another city.

Though Appellant's failure to monitor his e-mail account does not amount to an "unusual circumstance" supportive of waiving the automatic fine, his alleged facts, including the unfortunate passing of his father and his role as a caretaker for his mother, do amount to "unusual circumstances" that justify waiving the $1500 fine.

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby finds that unusual circumstances for failure to timely file have been demonstrated. We therefore waive the assessed fine of $1500.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on April 24, 2026.

Date Rendered

Jon M. Philipson
Chair, Florida Commission on Ethics

To Whom It May Concern:

I have been on the Palm Bay CDD for over 10 years and have filed my Form 1 in a timely manner every year. However, I have just been fined for not filing the form for 2023 on time. Unfortunately, this was due to a couple of factors. Apparently the email on file is an old email that is full and has become more of a junk mail for me, therefore, I didn't receive the message. I have since corrected this.

More importantly, I was overwhelmed and distracted with the sudden death of my father in January in conjunction with my mother's progressive dementia. I have spent most of my time dealing with her mental decline and eventually, moving her into an assisted living facility. As their only child, I continue to deal with their financial issues including trying to sell their home, which is in another town. Overall, it has been a mentally and physically stressful time, which unfortunately caused me to forget about the form.

Furthermore, being a member of the Palm Bay CDD is really more of a volunteer role as we are paid a maximum of $800 per year after taxes-and that is only if we attend all four quarterly meetings. In addition, it does not take into account all of the additional hours we put in to maintaining and managing this 100 home community.

Please allow for the removal of the fine since I have had timely filings every year and feel this past year was an anomaly due to all these circumstances.

Sincerely,

RE: In re Robert Scott Bergman 245067, Financial Disclosure Appeal No.: FD 24-021

The Commission has received your appeal. We will send all subsequent correspondence in this matter to you at the email address on record and/or mailing address unless you notify us of a change in your address.

The following information is to help you understand the process your appeal will follow. Please note: If you are currently being investigated for willfully failing to file financial disclosure, your appeal may not be heard until that process is complete. If we received your appeal more than 30 days after we sent you the notice of your right to appeal, it may be denied on that basis. Otherwise, the following will apply:

Initially, Commission staff will review your appeal and any documentation you submitted. We may contact you for more information. A draft order will then be prepared and agendaed for a Commission meeting. The Commission meets approximately every six weeks. How soon your appeal will be heard depends on a number of things, including when it was received and the Commission's workload. If you requested a hearing before the Commission when you filed your appeal, you will be provided with a copy of the draft order and will be notified of the date and time at which your appeal will be heard. At this meeting, the Commission will rule on your appeal. A final order will be entered and provided to you, usually within a week of the Commission meeting. If the fine is not waived, we will consider flexible payment options.

If you have any questions about this appeal or the appeal process, please feel free to contact Kimberly R Holmes, Program Administrator, at (850) 488-7864.

Do not reply to this email as it is generated automatically and electronically and cannot accept electronic replies.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statute, due to your failure to timely file your 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2023 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 01, 2024. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 03, 2024. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(7)(f), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2023 CE Form 1 was filed on December 20, 2024, you are fined the amount of $1,500.00 ($25.00 per day for 108 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(7)(f)3, Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P.O. Drawer 15709 Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road Building E, Suite 200 Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before July 12, 2025. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 03, 2024, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:

SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;

TECHNOLOGICAL ISSUE: provide documentation that supports your assertion that an issue with technology, such as an unexpected lack of access to the Internet or a power outage, prevented timely filing;

CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of the completed form which was electronically filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;

LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2023: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2023;

NOT REQUIRED TO FILE: provide documentation that supports the reason you are not required to file financial disclosure; or

OTHER UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCE: provide documentation explaining uncommon, rare, or sudden occurrence that prevented timely filing.

}, YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the Chief Financial Officer of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter at (850) 488-7864.

Our records show that you have not electronically filed your 2023 Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests, with our office by the July 1, 2024 deadline. The grace period for filing expired on September 3, 2024 and pursuant to State law an automatic fine of $25.00 per day for each day late ($1,500 maximum fine) is being assessed against you for your failure to timely file Form 1. Please e-file the form via the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS) as soon as possible. If you believe that you are not required to file, please contact our office immediately.

Visit the EFDMS website at <https://disclosure.floridaethics.gov/Account/Login> to complete and submit your disclosure. All notices and communications from the Florida Commission on Ethics regarding your filing requirement, due date(s), as well as FAQ's and tutorials are available from your filer dashboard.

In addition, State law provides that the Commission on Ethics must initiate investigations of delinquent filers in certain circumstances. This can result in your being removed from your public office or employment. See Section 112.3145(9)(c), Florida Statutes. You may also be subject to a complaint being filed, resulting in penalties as outlined in Section 112.317, Florida Statutes.

If you left your position in 2024:

Even if you left the position noted in the EFDMS filer dashboard during 2024, you are required to file for 2023. If you left your position during 2024, you may also need to file a Form 1F Final Statement of Financial Interests, covering a portion of the year 2024.

QUESTIONS? Call the Florida Commission on Ethics, (850) 488-7864 or 1-800-262-8824.

Persons with disabilities or handicaps who need assistance or reasonable accommodation to complete this form should contact the Commission on Ethics at (850) 488-7864. If you are hearing or speech impaired, please contact us by using the Florida Relay Service, which can be reached at 1-800-955-8771 (TTY).

A Public Office is a Public Trust

Hello,

You have received this invitation to register in the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS) of the Florida Commission on Ethics e-filing system. Your name and contact information was provided to the Commission by your agency coordinator identifying you as a public officer or public employee with an annual requirement to file a financial disclosure form.

All financial disclosure forms (Form 1, 1X, and 1F) must be filed electronically. The Commission will no longer promulgate paper forms.

You must use the following link to complete the registration process:

<https://disclosure.floridaethics.gov/Account/Registration?token=ZQ07C6LWIOH53VY> (Please note the link will expire in 14 days.)

Once you are registered, always access e-filing from the I am a Filer link, even if you are a candidate for office.

By law, you must keep an up-to-date email address in the e-filing system.

Your email address will be used to provide you with notifications about due dates and the filing process, as well as other important announcements for financial disclosure filers. If you wish to designate a different email address for communications regarding e-filing, you may do so in your User Profile which is accessible from your Dashboard in EFDMS.

Questions about why you are receiving this email should be directed to your agency coordinator whose name appears on your dashboard in EFDMS.

Questions about the financial disclosure requirement, as well as how to complete the disclosure form should be directed to the Florida Commission on Ethics (850) 488-7864 or 1-800-262-8824.

More information is available on our website, www.ethics.state.fl.us.

Do not reply to this email as it is generated automatically and electronically and cannot accept electronic replies.

Our records show that you have not electronically filed your 2023 Form 1 Statement of Financial Interests, with our office by the July 1, 2024 deadline. The grace period for filing expired on September 3, 2024 and pursuant to State law an automatic fine of $25.00 per day for each day late ($1,500 maximum fine) is being assessed against you for your failure to timely file Form 1. Please e-file the form via the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS) as soon as possible. If you believe that you are not required to file, please contact our office immediately.

Visit the EFDMS website at <https://disclosure.floridaethics.gov/Account/Login> to complete and submit your disclosure. All notices and communications from the Florida Commission on Ethics regarding your filing requirement, due date(s), as well as FAQ's and tutorials are available from your filer dashboard.

In addition, State law provides that the Commission on Ethics must initiate investigations of delinquent filers in certain circumstances. This can result in your being removed from your public office or employment. See Section 112.3145(9)(c), Florida Statutes. You may also be subject to a complaint being filed, resulting in penalties as outlined in Section 112.317, Florida Statutes.

If you left your position in 2024:

Even if you left the position noted in the EFDMS filer dashboard during 2024, you are required to file for 2023. If you left your position during 2024, you may also need to file a Form 1F Final Statement of Financial Interests, covering a portion of the year 2024.

QUESTIONS? Call the Florida Commission on Ethics, (850) 488-7864 or 1-800-262-8824.

Persons with disabilities or handicaps who need assistance or reasonable accommodation to complete this form should contact the Commission on Ethics at (850) 488-7864. If you are hearing or speech impaired, please contact us by using the Florida Relay Service, which can be reached at 1-800-955-8771 (TTY).

State officers, specified state employees, and local officers serving as of December 31, 2023 are required to file this year. Even if you left the position during 2024, you are required to file disclosure for the year 2023 using the e-filing system.

If you believe you were sent this notice in error, contact the financial disclosure coordinator for your agency, who provided your name and position as meeting the criteria for filing disclosure. In order to remove your name from the official list, the agency coordinator must submit documentation to our office. To find your agency's coordinator go to our website, www.ethics.state.fl.us, click on the "Financial Disclosure" tab, then "Coordinator Information" to search for your agency's coordinator.

WHEN TO FILE:

On or before July 1, 2024 .

» HOW TO FILE ELECTRONICALLY:

The law requires the Form 1 to be filed electronically with the Florida Commission on Ethics via the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS). If you have not already registered in EFDMS in 2023 , please contact the Florida Commission on Ethics at 850-488-7864.

Once you register and create a username and password, you can log into EFDMS to electronically complete and file your Form

Before you file electronically, visit <http://www.ethics.state.fl.us/Documents/FinancialDisclosure/E-filing.pdf> for important information and tips about filing electronically this year.

FAILURE TO FILE the annual disclosure form by September 1, 2024 , triggers automatic fines of 25.00 for each late day. In addition, pursuant to law, the Commission on Ethics must initiate investigations of delinquent filers in certain circumstances. This can result in your being removed from your public office or employment. See Section 112.3145(9)(c), Florida Statutes. You may also be subject to a complaint being filed, resulting in penalties as outlined in Section 112.317, Florida Statutes.

QUALIFYING FOR OFFICE? Your electronically filed 2023 Form 1 can be used for qualifying purposes.

QUESTIONS? Call the Florida Commission on Ethics, 850-488-7864.

Persons with disabilities or handicaps who need assistance or reasonable accommodation to complete this form should contact the Commission on Ethics at (850) 488-7864. A Public Office is a Public Trust

According to our records, you are required to complete a Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, in order to satisfy your obligation to file financial disclosure. State officers, local officers, and specified state employees serving as of December 31, 2023 (and persons elected in 2023 whose terms began this year) are required to file this year. Even if you left the position during 2024, you are required to file disclosure for the year 2023 using the e-filing system.

If you believe you were sent this notice in error, contact the financial disclosure coordinator for your agency, who provided your name and position as meeting the criteria for filing disclosure. In order to remove your name from the official list, the agency coordinator must submit documentation to our office. To find your agency's coordinator go to our website, www.ethics.state.fl.us, click on the "Financial Disclosure" tab, then "Coordinator Information" to search for your agency's coordinator.

WHEN TO FILE:

On or before July 1, 2024

» HOW TO FILE ELECTRONICALLY:

This is the first time your Form 1 will be filed electronically with the Florida Commission on Ethics via the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS). The form cannot be filed on paper. If you have not already registered in EFDMS, visit <https://disclosure.floridaethics.gov>. Click the "I am a Filer" button, and then the "Request Registration Email" button. Enter your email address where this official notice was received. Once you register and create a username and password, you can log into EFDMS to electronically complete and file your Form 1.

Before you file electronically, visit <https://ethics.state.fl.us/Documents/Ethics/Tips.pdf?cp=202442> for important information and tips about filing electronically this year.

FAILURE TO FILE the annual disclosure form by September 3, 2024, triggers automatic fines of $25.00 for each late day. In addition, pursuant to law, the Commission on Ethics must initiate investigations of delinquent filers in certain circumstances. This can result in your being removed from your public office or employment. See Section 112.3145(9)(c), Florida Statutes. You may also be subject to a complaint being filed, resulting in penalties as outlined in Section 112.317, Florida Statutes.

QUALIFYING FOR OFFICE? Your electronically filed 2023 Form 1 can be used for qualifying purposes by printing the Verification and Receipt of Filing from your EFDMS Filer Dashboard.

QUESTIONS? Call the Florida Commission on Ethics, 850-488-7864 or 1-800-262-8824.

Persons with disabilities or handicaps who need assistance or reasonable accommodation to complete this form should contact the Commission on Ethics at (850) 488-7864. If you are hearing or speech impaired, please contact us by using the Florida Relay Service, which can be reached at 1-800-955-8771 (TTY).

A Public Office is a Public Trust

Hello,

You have received this invitation to register in the Electronic Financial Disclosure Management System (EFDMS) of the Florida Commission on Ethics e-filing system. Your name and contact information was provided to the Commission by your agency coordinator identifying you as a public officer or public employee with an annual requirement to file a financial disclosure form.

All financial disclosure forms (Form 1, 1X, and 1F) must be filed electronically. The Commission will no longer promulgate paper forms.

You must use the following link to complete the registration process:

<https://disclosure.floridaethics.gov/Account/Registration?token=ZQ07C6LWIOH53VY> (Please note the link will expire in 14 days.)

Once you are registered, always access e-filing from the I am a Filer link, even if you are a candidate for office.

By law, you must keep an up-to-date email address in the e-filing system.

Your email address will be used to provide you with notifications about due dates and the filing process, as well as other important announcements for financial disclosure filers. If you wish to designate a different email address for communications regarding e-filing, you may do so in your User Profile which is accessible from your Dashboard in EFDMS.

Questions about why you are receiving this email should be directed to your agency coordinator whose name appears on your dashboard in EFDMS.

Questions about the financial disclosure requirement, as well as how to complete the disclosure form should be directed to the Florida Commission on Ethics (850) 488-7864 or 1-800-262-8824.

More information is available on our website, www.ethics.state.fl.us.

Do not reply to this email as it is generated automatically and electronically and cannot accept electronic replies.
