FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session on March 8, 2024, on the appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(f), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant did not request a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant served as a Director employed by the School Board of Broward County, a position requiring the filing of a 2021 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, for the year 2021. In 2022, the designated due date for submitting a 2021 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 1, 2022, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2022.

2. No later than June 1, 2022, the Broward County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a 2021 CE Form 1. This notice was sent to Appellant at 5280 NW 55th Boulevard, Apartment 304, Coconut Creek, FL 33073.

3. No later than August 1, 2022, the Broward County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a Notice of Delinquency by certified mail. This Notice was sent to Appellant at the 55th Boulevard address.

4. On August 18, 2022, the Commission on Ethics mailed Appellant a postcard intended to remind her of her obligation to file a 2021 CE Form 1. The Commission mailed the postcard to the 55th Boulevard address.

5. On September 13, 2022, the Commission sent Appellant a courtesy notice that fines were beginning to accrue, as her 2021 CE Form 1 had not been received. The notice was sent to Appellant at 4161 Marina Way, Deerfield Beach, FL 33064. That letter was returned as not deliverable on September 30, 2022.

6. On November 18 and December 5, 2022, Appellant exchanged several emails with the staff of the Commission on Ethics regarding her obligation to file.

7. On December 6, 2022, Appellant submitted her 2021 CE Form 1 to the Commission on Ethics, which was ninety-six days after the expiration of the grace period. Appellant listed her address as 4161 Marina Way, Deerfield Beach, FL 33064 on her 2021 CE Form 1.

8. On November 2, 2023, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Assessment of her Automatic Fine. The notice was sent by mail to the Marina Way address. It indicated the total of Appellant's accrued automatic fine.

9. On November 7, 2023, Appellant submitted her appeal of automatic fine for Form Year 2021 with the Commission. In part A of her appeal form, Appellant listed the Marina Way address as her mailing address. In part B of her appeal form, Appellant checked "Lack of Notification – Failure to receive notice" as the general reason for her appeal. In part C of her appeal form, where an appellant is asked to provide detailed explanation of his or her appeal, Appellant wrote that she did not receive any notice of her obligation to file. Email reminders were sent to Appellant's Broward County Schools email address. Appellant stated that her access to that email account had been cut off after her resignation and that she had requested temporary access to her Broward County School email address to wrap up some loose ends, but that request was denied.

Conclusions of Law

10. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

11. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

12. Section 112.3145(8)(f)2., Florida Statutes, states:

Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

10. Here, Appellant claims she did not receive timely notice of her filing obligation, in part because the notices that she was being sent through email were sent to an account that she no longer had access to, despite her request for temporary access to wrap up loose ends. There is no evidence to dispute Appellant's claim that she failed to receive timely notice. Considering

Appellant's claim of lack of notice, and that there is no evidence showing otherwise, there are "unusual circumstances" here that justify waiving the $1,500 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby finds that unusual circumstances for failure to file have been demonstrated. We therefore waive the assessed fine of $1,500.

ORDERED by the State of Florida Commission on Ethics meeting in public session on Friday, March 8, 2024.

PART B: GENERAL REASON(S) FOR YOUR APPEAL

Please choose any/all reasons that apply to your appeal.

I hereby appeal the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine on the following basis:

PART C: DETAILED EXPLANATION OF YOUR APPEAL

Please provide a detailed explanation of your appeal, including why each option you selected in Part B is applicable to you. You may use the space provided and/or attach additional pages.

As of June 29, 2022, I resigned from the School Board of Broward County and was immediately unable to access emails. Please see attached document of email correspondence with district staff requesting that my access be temporarily restored. A request that was denied. It would seem the delinquency notices went to my SBBC email which clearly I had no access to or was no longer active. In the past I have always been responsive to these notices and would never willfully disregard this obligation. Though I understand it was my duty to ensure this was done regardless of notices, I humbly ask for leniency as I would have completed, had I received the notices.

OPTIONAL REQUEST FOR HEARING

In addition to this written appeal, I specifically request to appear before the Commission in a hearing pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f)3 or Section 112.3145(8)(g)3, Florida Statutes. Commission meetings occur in Tallahassee.

SIGNATURE

I have received and read the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine and its instructions on How to Appeal and I understand my options. I am requesting disposition of this matter as indicated.

Good morning Mr. Greenberg and Mr. Sherman. I submitted a resignation letter with effective date of June 30 with the understanding that I would have at least today to finalize some things with BCPS, especially as it relates to email and some evaluations for members of my staff. However, at 3 AM this morning I noticed I was no longer allowed access to the server/email. I am writing to request temporary access to the network especially email as I am working to wrap up a number of loose ends. If at all I can be allowed another 2 week at least, that would be very helpful in especially in getting some items to the individual who will be handling areas of my previously responsibilities. The timeline around my resignation was very quick and unfortunately I was also out of the country in the last week with very limited internet access. Your assistance would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

How to Fix It

The address may be misspelled or may not exist. Try one or more of the following:

- Send the message again following these steps: In Outlook, open this non-delivery report (NDR) and choose Send Again from the Report ribbon. In Outlook on the web, select this NDR, then select the link "To send this message again, click here." Then delete and retype the entire recipient address. If prompted with an Auto-Complete List suggestion don't select it. After typing the complete address, click Send.
- Contact the recipient (by phone, for example) to check that the address exists and is correct.
- The recipient may have set up email forwarding to an incorrect address. Ask them to check that any forwarding they've set up is working correctly.
- Clear the recipient Auto-Complete List in Outlook or Outlook on the web by following the steps in this article: Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.10 in Office 365, and then send the message again. Retype the entire recipient address before selecting Send.

If the problem continues, forward this message to your email admin. If you're an email admin, refer to the More Info for Email Admins section below.

Status code: 550 5.1.10

This error occurs because the sender sent a message to an email address hosted by Office 365 but the address is incorrect or doesn't exist at the destination domain. The error is reported by the recipient domain's email server, but most often it must be fixed by the person who sent the message. If the steps in the How to Fix It section above don't fix the problem, and you're the email admin for the recipient, try one or more of the following:

The email address exists and is correct - Confirm that the recipient address exists, is correct, and is accepting messages.

Synchronize your directories - If you have a hybrid environment and are using directory synchronization make sure the recipient's email address is synced correctly in both Office 365 and in your on-premises directory.

Errant forwarding rule - Check for forwarding rules that aren't behaving as expected.

Forwarding can be set up by an admin via mail flow rules or mailbox forwarding address settings, or by the recipient via the Inbox Rules feature.

Recipient has a valid license - Make sure the recipient has an Office 365 license assigned to them. The recipient's email admin can use the Office 365 admin center to assign a license (Users > Active Users > select the recipient > Assigned License > Edit).

Mail flow settings and MX records are not correct - Misconfigured mail flow or MX record settings can cause this error. Check your Office 365 mail flow settings to make sure your domain and any mail flow connectors are set up correctly. Also, work with your domain registrar to make sure the MX records for your domain are configured correctly.

For more information and additional tips to fix this issue, see Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.10 in Office 365.

Dr. Mancini,

I was informed that my request below would need to come directly from you to Dr. Joe Phillips, Cc to Ms. Teresa Macri.

I am writing to request temporary access to the network especially email as I am working to wrap up a number of loose ends. If at all I can be allowed another 2 week at least, that would be very helpful especially in getting some items to Ms. Cantrick and Mr. Barmoha. I also need to wrap up some evaluations amongst some other things. I was under the impression I would have at least today until 11:59 PM but my access ended this morning (I noticed at 3AM). Thank you.

Gmail - Temporary Access

Good morning Mr. Greenberg and Mr. Sherman. I submitted a resignation letter with effective date of June 30 with the understanding that I would have at least today to finalize some things with BCPS, especially as it relates to email and some evaluations for members of my staff. However, at 3 AM this morning I noticed I was no longer allowed access to the server/email. I am writing to request temporary access to the network especially email as I am working to wrap up a number of loose ends. If at all I can be allowed another 2 week at least, that would be very helpful in especially in getting some items to the individual who will be handling areas of my previous responsibilities. The timeline around my resignation was very quick and unfortunately I was also out of the country in the last week with very limited internet access. Your assistance would be greatly appreciated. Thank you.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2021 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2021 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2022. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2022. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2021 CE Form 1 was filed December 6, 2022 with the Supervisor of Elections for Broward County, you are fined the amount of $1500.00 ($25.00 per day for 96 day(s) late). This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before December 4, 2023. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2022, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
- d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
- e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2021: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2021; or
- f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS:

If you were mailed the form by the Commission on Ethics or a County Supervisor of Elections for your annual disclosure filing, return the form to that location. To determine what category your position falls under, see page 3 of instructions.

Local officers/employees file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which they permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.) Form 1 filers who file with the Supervisor of Elections may file by mail or email. Contact your Supervisor of Elections for the mailing address or email address to use. Do not email your form to the Commission on Ethics, it will be returned.

State officers or specified state employees who file with the Commission on Ethics may file by mail or email. To file by mail, send the completed form to P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709; physical address: 325 John Knox Rd, Bldg E, Ste 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. To file with the Commission by email, scan your completed form and any attachments as a pdf (do not use any other format), send it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us and retain a copy for your records. Do not file by both mail and email. Choose only one filing method. Form 6s will not be accepted via email.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

MULTIPLE FILING UNNECESSARY: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2021.
