In Re: Jeffrey Marc Siskind
Complaint No. 18-185EMERGENCY MOTION FOR CONTINUANCE

COMES NOW, Jeffrey Marc Siskind ("Respondent"), by and through his undersigned counsel, and files this Emergency Motion for Continuance, and states in support thereof:

1. Respondent intended to appear at a hearing today to refute the Advocate's recommendations on probable cause but was precluded from doing so due to vehicle mechanical problems necessitating repairs which arose yesterday, and the absence of available flight connections when the mechanical problems arose.

2. Respondent's refutation is substantive, and includes advising the Commission of the omission of documents relevant to respondent's valuation of its business and net worth, which records were timely provided to the investigator but appear not to have been considered.

3. Respondent contacted the Advocate yesterday to ask that she extend the Respondent's apology for not being able to appear and request a continuance.

4. Neither the Commission or the public will be prejudiced by a continuance until the next Commission meeting, but Respondent will suffer severe prejudice.

WHEREFORE, Respondent requests a continuance until the next scheduled Commission meeting.

Respectfully submitted this 13th day of September, 2019.
