

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

TO: Members, Commission on Ethics

FROM: Kerrie Stillman
Executive Director

DATE: October 8, 2026

ADVISORY OPINIONS

The Commission on Ethics did not issue any opinions at its August meeting. It has rendered 2,729 opinions since its inception in 1974.

LITIGATION

President of Town Council Elizabeth A. Loper, elected official of the Town of Briny Breezes, et al. v. Lukis et. al., Case 1:24-cv-20604-JAL, (United States District Court Southern District of Florida).

Background

Plaintiffs are multiple elected municipal officers. They are challenging the validity of the requirement in Section 112.3144, Florida Statutes, that municipal elected officials and mayors (and candidates for such offices) must file a CE Form 6 financial disclosure. Plaintiffs' argument is that requiring these types of officers and candidates to publicly disclose the information required on the CE Form 6 violates their First Amendment rights under the United States Constitution, as it is government-compelled, content-based, non-commercial speech. Plaintiffs seek a declaration that extending the requirements in Section 112.3144 to municipal elected officials and municipal candidates is unconstitutional, an injunction against enforcing this provision of the law, and legal costs and fees.

Commission Representation

William Stafford of the Office of the Attorney General is the lead attorney representing the Commission. Gray Schafer and Steven Zuilkowski will be the Commission's points of contact with lead counsel.

Current Status

Each side filed a Motion for Summary Judgment on October 11, 2024, and all related responses were filed by November 8, 2024. No argument on the motions has been scheduled. On September 29, 2025, the Judge issued an Order Staying Case in Anticipation of Final Judgment, staying the action pending the Court's forthcoming order on the cross motions for summary judgment and closing the case for administrative and statistical purposes only. On September 16, 2026, the Commission met and voted to reject a settlement offer from Plaintiffs.

Town of Briny Breezes, Florida et al. v. Rodgers et al., Case Number 2024-CA-000283, (Fla. 2nd Circ. Ct., Leon County)

Background

Plaintiffs are multiple municipalities and elected municipal officers. They are challenging the validity of the requirement in Section 112.3144, Florida Statutes, that municipal elected officials and mayors (and candidates for such offices) must file a CE Form 6 financial disclosure. In essence, Plaintiffs' argument is that requiring municipal elected officials and municipal candidates to publicly disclose the information required on the CE Form 6 violates their right to privacy under Article II, Section 23 of the Florida Constitution. Plaintiffs claim there is no compelling state interest that would justify having these types of officers and candidates disclose that degree of the information, and, even if there was a compelling interest, requiring these officers and candidates to file a CE Form 6 is not the least restrictive means of accomplishing that interest when the CE Form 1 is also available. Plaintiffs seek a declaration that extending the requirements in Section 112.3144 to municipal elected officials and municipal candidates is unconstitutional, an injunction against enforcing this provision of the law, and legal costs.

Commission Representation

William Stafford of the Office of the Attorney General is the lead attorney representing the Commission. Gray Schafer and Steven Zuilkowski are the Commission's points of contact with lead counsel.

Current Status

Defendants have filed a motion to dismiss and Plaintiffs have responded. We await an order on the motion. On August 24, 2026, the Court set the case for trial on November 17, 2026. On September 16, 2026, the Commission met and voted to reject a settlement offer from Plaintiffs.

Garcia et al. v. Stillman et al., USCA Case No. 23-12663 (11th Circuit Court of Appeals), and S.D. Fla. (1:22-CV-24156-BB)

Background

At the time the case was filed, Plaintiffs were local public officers challenging the In-Office Lobbying Ban found in Article II, Section 8(f)(2), Florida Constitution. The ban became law after the Constitutional Revision Commission proposed it in 2018 via Amendment 12, which passed with 79% of the vote. The District Court entered final judgment in favor of the Plaintiffs, finding that Article II, Section 8(f)(2), was an unconstitutional abridgment of free speech. On August 9, 2023, the District Court entered final judgment enjoining the Commission from enforcing the provision on any public officer in the State. Defendants appealed to the 11th Circuit.

Commission Representation

Nate Forrester of the Office of the Solicitor General is representing Defendants in the appeal. All briefs are filed. Emily Witthoef of the Office of the Attorney General represents the Commission before the District Court. Steven Zuilkowski is monitoring the appeal.

Current Status

On November 30, 2023, the 11th Circuit stayed the injunction pending a final adjudication of the appeal. The stay allows continued enforcement of the In-Office Lobbying Ban against all public officers except the one named Plaintiff who had standing to challenge the ban. All briefs have been filed and oral argument on the merits of the appeal occurred on February 24, 2025. The audio of that proceeding is available at this link:

Ferdell Baker v. Florida Commission on Ethics, Case Number SC2025-1748, (Florida Supreme Court); 2026-CA-000051 (Fla. 2nd Circ. Ct., Leon County)

Background

On November 6, 2025, Petitioner filed this action with the Florida Supreme Court apparently seeking a Writ of Mandamus. On December 23, 2025, the Supreme Court transferred the case to the Circuit Court of the Second Judicial Circuit, in and for Leon County. Steven Zuilkowski and Amelia Naomi are monitoring the case.

Current Status

On August 25, 2026, the Court entered an Order denying the petition for Writ of Mandamus.

Shaun Patrick Stewart v. The Honorable Ron DeSantis, et al., Case No. 5D2026-0859 (Fla. 5th DCA)

Background

In Case No. 2026-CA-000007 (Fifth Judicial Circuit Court for Lake County), Appellant sought a writ of mandamus against many public officials, including Executive Director Kerrie Stillman. Ms. Stillman and the Commission were never served with any filings and the lower court issued an order dispensing with the action. The lower court then issued an order declaring Appellant a vexatious litigant. Appellant appeals the order declaring him a vexatious litigant.

Current Status

Appellant filed his amended initial brief on July 31, 2026. Many of the Appellees, including Ms. Stillman, are represented by Assistant Attorney General Lydon William Schultz (Steven Zuilkowski and Amelia Naomi monitoring). Those Appellees filed an answer brief on September 1, 2026.

TRAINING AND STAFF ANNOUNCEMENTS

On August 14, Steve conducted a 1-hour CLE on the Commission's formal opinion process for the Administrative Law Section of the Florida Bar.

Lynn conducted a financial disclosure training via videoconference for the Broward County Municipal Clerks Association on August 17.

On September 2, Kerrie provided an ethics training session for Tax Collectors at the Florida Tax Collectors Association Fall Education Forum, in Orlando.

Amelia provided a CLE training for the Education Law Committee on September 17, via videoconference.
