FINAL ORDER

This matter came before the Commission on Ethics, meeting in public session October 23, 2026, on the timely appeal of Appellant, pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, which assesses an automatic fine of $25 per day on a person who fails to timely file a required CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests. The Commission may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown, based on "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file by the designated date. There are no matters in dispute. Appellant has not requested a hearing before the Commission.

Findings of Fact

1. According to information provided to the Commission, Appellant served as a member of the Employees' Pension Fund Board for the City of Bushnell, a position requiring the filing of a 2020 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests.¹ In 2021, the designated due date for submitting a 2020 CE Form 1 annual filing was July 1, 2021, with a grace period ending on September 1, 2021.

¹ Section 112.3145(1)(a)2.e., Florida Statutes, sets out a filing obligation for members of local pension boards with the power to either invest pension or retirement funds, or to make binding determinations regarding one's entitlement to or amount of a pension or other retirement benefit.

2. On May 14, 2021, the Sumter County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant notice of the July 1, 2021, filing deadline and a blank 2020 CE Form 1 for her to complete.

3. On July 6, 2021, the City Clerk sent an email to the Supervisor of Elections indicating that Appellant no longer planned to continue serving on the City Pension Board, but had been informed that she still had an obligation to file the 2020 CE Form 1.

4. In materials provided by the Supervisor of Elections, the Supervisor's Deputy Clerk indicated she then spoke with Appellant on July 8, 2021. The Deputy Clerk indicated Appellant was "very upset" as no one had informed her that service on the City Pension Board required the filing of financial disclosure, and "she would have never agreed to be on the [B]oard if she knew" that financial disclosure was required. The Deputy Clerk stated she informed Appellant that, despite Appellant's resignation from the City Pension Board, Appellant still needed to file the 2020 CE Form 1. According to the Deputy Clerk, Appellant then stated, "she was not going to file the form and asked what fee she needed to pay."

5. On August 4, 2021, the Sumter County Supervisor of Elections sent Appellant a notice of delinquency by certified mail.² This notice was sent to Appellant at 218 N Florida St Ste 1, Bushnell, Florida. United States Postal Service records indicate the certified mailing was delivered on August 12, 2021, although it cannot be determined from the signature who signed for the mailing.

6. On September 8, 2021, the Commission on Ethics sent Appellant a courtesy notice indicating that fines were beginning to accrue as her 2020 CE Form 1 had not been received. This notice was sent to the 218 N Florida St Ste 1 address.

² The Supervisor of Elections indicates in its materials that it sent an initial delinquency notice to the same address on July 12, 2021, but it was returned as undeliverable.

7. Because Appellant did not file her 2020 CE Form 1 within 60 days of the expiration of the grace period—September 1, 2021—she accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.

8. On October 19, 2023, the Commission sent Appellant a Notice of Assessment of her Automatic Fine. The Notice was sent to the 218 N Florida St Ste 1 address. It indicated the total of Appellant's accrued automatic fine, and included a notice of the right to appeal the fine, stating that the appeal had to be received by the Commission by November 17, 2023. Appellant signed for the certified mailing on November 3, 2023.

9. Following the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine, on November 9, 2023, Appellant contacted the Commission. She indicated she had just received the Notice, and claimed she only attended two meetings as a City Pension Board member and was never informed of the financial disclosure obligation. Appellant indicated she resigned immediately upon learning that she had to file a disclosure.

10. Six days later, on November 15, 2023, Appellant submitted to the Commission her 2020 CE Form 1. The Commission accepted the filing on behalf of the Sumter County Supervisor of Elections.

11. Appellant also submitted her appeal on November 15, 2023. In the appeal, Appellant indicated neither the Pension Board nor the City informed her prior to her appointment that voluntarily serving on the Board required a financial disclosure. She indicated that when she was notified of the disclosure obligation, she resigned. She also claims that, during 2020, she participated in only one meeting, and had she known "she still had to provide the form after resignation[, she] would have submitted it."³

Conclusions of Law

12. The Commission has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this proceeding pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.

13. Financial disclosure is required of public officials and employees because it enables the public to evaluate potential conflicts of interest, deters corruption, and increases public confidence in government.

14. Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, which has been subsequently renumbered to Section 112.3145(8)(f)(2), states:

Any reporting person may appeal or dispute a fine, based upon unusual circumstances surrounding the failure to file on the designated due date, and may request and is entitled to a hearing before the commission, which may waive the fine in whole or in part for good cause shown. Any such request must be in writing and received by the commission within 30 days after the notice of payment due is transmitted. In such a case, the reporting person must, within the 30-day period, notify the person designated to review the timeliness of reports in writing of his or her intention to bring the matter before the commission. For purposes of this subparagraph, the term "unusual circumstances" does not include the failure to monitor an e-mail account or failure to receive notice if the person has not notified the commission of a change in his or her e-mail address.

15. Pursuant to Rule 34-8.215(4), F.A.C., "unusual circumstances" means uncommon, rare or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements. Circumstances which allow for time in which to take those steps necessary to assure compliance with the filing requirements shall be deemed not to constitute unusual circumstances.

16. Appellant's basis for appeal is that she was never informed that voluntary service on the City Pension Board required her to file a 2020 CE Form 1, and that she immediately resigned after being informed of the disclosure obligation. However, simply because Appellant was not informed that she had to file the Form 1 does not excuse the disclosure requirement under Section 112.3145, which is predicated on an officer or employee serving in an enumerated position as opposed to the officer or employee being informed of the disclosure requirement. Also, even assuming Appellant did not receive either of the notices sent prior to the grace period expiring, it appears she was notified of her obligation to file the 2020 CE Form 1 before fines began to accrue. Materials included from the Supervisor of Elections indicate she had conversations during the grace period with representatives from both the City Clerk's Office and the Supervisor's Office, each notifying her that she had a filing obligation despite resigning from the Board. This is supported by Appellant's own claim that she resigned as soon as she learned of the filing requirement, and the City has confirmed her resignation was July 21, 2021, which was prior to the grace period expiring for the 2020 CE Form 1. Considering the lack of legal support for Appellant's claim, and that at least two public representatives informed her of the filing obligation prior to fines beginning to accrue, there are not "unusual circumstances" here to justify waiving the $1,500 fine.

Order

Based on the foregoing facts and conclusions of law, the Commission hereby affirms the assessed fine of $1,500 and dismisses the appeal. The fine shall be paid to the Commission on Ethics, P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, within 30 days of the date this order is rendered, unless other payment arrangements are made by contacting Kimberly Holmes, Financial Disclosure Program Administrator, at the address above or by telephone at (850)488-7864.

I hereby appeal the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine on the following basis:

- b. ☐ Lack of notification – Failure to receive notice (Explain in Part C and provide documentation that supports your assertion that you never received certified mail delinquency notice: for example, incorrect address; misdelivered mail; change in employment; extended absence from home, etc.)

PART C: DETAILED EXPLANATION OF YOUR APPEAL

Please provide a detailed explanation of your appeal, including why each option you selected in Part B is applicable to you. You may use the space provided and/or attach additional pages.

It probably does not matter to the state of Florida, and I understand that, but I was never told by the board that appointed me, or the city, of the requirement to fill this form out.

When notified of the disclosure I was instructed to resign as a remedy and I did that.

I only ever participated in 1 meeting in 2020 because of when I was appointed.

I'm sure it doesn't matter but I did not sign up or aspire for this position. The city was in a bind and asked me to volunteer. I am an avid volunteer in our community and I did but no disclosures were ever made. If I knew I still had to provide the form after resignation I would have submitted it, it's in the email with this appeal form.

OPTIONAL REQUEST FOR HEARING

☐ In addition to this written appeal, I specifically request to appear before the Commission in a hearing pursuant to Section 112.3144(8)(f)3 or Section 112.3145(8)(g)3, Florida Statutes. Commission meetings occur in Tallahassee.

SIGNATURE

I have received and read the Notice of Assessment of Automatic Fine and its instructions on How to Appeal and I understand my options. I am requesting disposition of this matter as indicated.

RE: Financial Disclosure (Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests -- 2020)

Enclosed is a Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, to complete and return in order to satisfy your obligation to file financial disclosure for the past year. The information on the top of the form lists the public position that requires you to file. The Florida Commission on Ethics prepares the list of persons required to file financial disclosure. The Commission obtains the names and addresses from coordinators for each local government agency. Our office receives the forms and reminds persons of the deadlines.

WHY DID I RECEIVE THIS FORM?

Persons serving as of December 31, 2020 (along with those officials elected in 2020 whose terms began in 2021) are required to file this year. Even if you left the position noted during 2021, you are required to file disclosure for the year 2020 on this form. (Note that if you left your position during 2021, you also may be required to file a Form 1F covering a portion of the year 2021--see the instructions on enclosed Form 1, page 2.)

If you think you have received this form in error, please contact the financial disclosure coordinator for your agency, who has provided your name based on your official position and responsibilities. If appropriate, the local agency's coordinator will contact the Commission on Ethics to remove your name from the list. To find your agency's coordinator and how to contact that person, either contact our office or see the list that is posted on the Ethics Commission's website at www.ethics.state.fl.us, under the "Financial Disclosure" tab.

Good Morning,

Connie Mahan

On July 8, 2021, Connie Mahan called the Supervisor of Elections office inquiring as to why she was required to file a FORM 1 for the Commission on Ethics.

I explained to Ms. Mahan that her position with the Bushnell Employees' Pension Fund Board required her to file a FORM 1. Ms. Mahan got very upset - she explained that when she accepted the position with the Board, she was never told that she would be required to file a Financial Disclosure. She said she would have never agreed to be on the board if she knew it was going to require her to file a financial disclosure. Ms. Mahan stated that she is no longer serving on the board, and I explained that the form was being filed for 2020. Ms. Mahan said she was not going to file the form and asked what fee she needed to pay. I explained that starting September 1 she would be charged $25 per day, with a maximum penalty of $1500, and not filing the required form could lead to an investigation from the Commission on Ethics. Ms. Mahan asked me to whom she should make the $1500 check payable. She then asked if I was the highest person to talk to about this because she didn't think it was right that she wasn't notified that she would be required to file this form upon accepting her position on the board. I provided Ms. Mahan with the Commission on Ethics contact information.

NOTICE OF ASSESSMENT OF AUTOMATIC FINE

The Commission on Ethics hereby gives notice of an assessment of a fine against you pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, due to your failure to timely file your 2020 CE Form 1, Statement Of Financial Interests. Under the law, your 2020 CE Form 1, Statement of Financial Interests, was due by July 1, 2021. The law provided for a penalty-free grace period extending the due date to September 1, 2021. After that date, you accrued fines of $25.00 per day for each day your financial disclosure was late, up to the maximum fine of $1,500.00 (60 days late), pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes.

Inasmuch as your 2020 CE Form 1 has not been filed with the Supervisor of Elections for Sumter County within the 60 days of the grace period date (September 1, 2021), you have accrued the maximum fine amount of $1,500.00. This fine must be paid to the Commission on Ethics within 30 days of the date of this notice unless you appeal the fine to the Commission. The Commission has the authority to consider the appeal and waive the fine in whole or in part if your failure to file on time was due to "unusual circumstances" surrounding the failure to file. Unless the fine is successfully appealed, the Commission is required to investigate public officers and employees who receive the maximum $1,500 fine, to determine whether their failure to file was willful. The penalty for willfully failing to file disclosure is removal from public office or employment.

HOW TO APPEAL

1. Read these instructions carefully before submitting your appeal.
2. LEGAL AUTHORITY: Appeals are governed by Section 112.3145(8)(g)3., Florida Statutes, and Commission Rule 34-8.215, Florida Administrative Code.
3. FORMAT: Your appeal must be in writing and mailed to Florida Commission on Ethics, P. O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709, or delivered to Florida Commission on Ethics, 325 John Knox Road, Building E, Suite 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. The appeal may take the form of a letter or you may use the appeal form included in this mailing. The appeal form also is available at the Commission's website: www.ethics.state.fl.us. Click on "Financial Disclosure" and then the link to the sample appeal form.
4. DUE DATE: Your appeal must be received by the Commission on Ethics on or before November 17, 2023. NOTE: Failure to timely file an appeal will constitute a waiver of your right to appeal and will result in the entry of a default order against you.
5. UNUSUAL CIRCUMSTANCES: An appeal must demonstrate that you submitted your CE Form 1 after the extended due date because of "unusual circumstances." "Unusual circumstances" is defined in Commission Rule 34-8.215(4), Florida Administrative Code, as "uncommon, rare, or sudden events over which the reporting individual had no control and which directly result in the failure to act in accordance with the filing requirements." Therefore, circumstances that allowed for time to take steps necessary to file on time do not constitute "unusual circumstances" that will allow the Commission to waive the fine. You have the burden to establish "unusual circumstances." Your appeal must specifically state the circumstances that led to your not filing by September 1, 2021, and must include any documentation or evidence supporting your appeal, such as:
 - a. SICKNESS/INJURY: a statement from attending physician, including dates and nature of the illness or injury;
 - b. LACK OF NOTICE (WRONG ADDRESS): documentation that you did not reside at the address to which notice was sent;

- c. LACK OF NOTICE (ABSENCE FROM HOME): documentation establishing the period of time of your absence covering the notification period;
 - d. CLAIM OF TIMELY FILING OF FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE: (1) an affidavit from you attesting under oath or affirmation that you filed your financial disclosure and your recollection of when and how you filed and (2) a copy of a certified mail receipt and/or a copy of the completed form which was filed. If you have witnesses to your filing, we also will need an affidavit from each witness. NOTE: A claim of having filed the CE Form 1F for the current year does not satisfy the CE Form 1 filing requirement or excuse a late filing;
 - e. LEFT PUBLIC POSITION BEFORE DECEMBER 31, 2020: confirmation of your last date of office or employment by your former agency, showing the last date to be before December 31, 2020; or
 - f. UNCLAIMED CERTIFIED MAIL: if delinquency notice was addressed correctly but not received, you must explain why.
6. YOUR RIGHT TO A HEARING: You have the right to have your appeal heard by the Commission and to appear before the Commission at the hearing, but, to exercise this right, you must specifically request a hearing in your appeal. If you do not request a hearing, you will waive your right to a hearing, the Commission will determine the outcome of your appeal based upon the written record (including the documentation you provide and any documentation in your case file), and you will receive no further notice until after the Commission decides your appeal.

FAILURE TO PAY FINE OR FILE APPEAL WITHIN 30 DAYS

If you do not timely file an appeal or pay the assessed fine within 30 days of this Notice, a default order will be entered against you and the Commission will take the steps provided by law to collect the fine, including:

- Referral to the CFO of the Department of Financial Services, if you are a salaried state officer or employee, for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied; or
- Referral to your agency's governing body for withholding of a portion of your salary until the fine is satisfied;
- Referral to a collection agency, which can seek garnishment of your wages; and/or
- An additional civil penalty, not limited by this automatic fine, may be imposed if your disclosure statement is filed more than 60 days late and a complaint is filed against you pursuant to Section 112.324, Florida Statutes.

Please contact our office if you have any questions about this matter.

FILING INSTRUCTIONS:

If you were mailed the form by the Commission on Ethics or a County Supervisor of Elections for your annual disclosure filing, return the form to that location. To determine what category your position falls under, see page 3 of instructions.

Local officers/employees file with the Supervisor of Elections of the county in which they permanently reside. (If you do not permanently reside in Florida, file with the Supervisor of the county where your agency has its headquarters.) Form 1 filers who file with the Supervisor of Elections may file by mail or email. Contact your Supervisor of Elections for the mailing address or email address to use. Do not email your form to the Commission on Ethics, it will be returned.

State officers or specified state employees who file with the Commission on Ethics may file by mail or email. To file by mail, send the completed form to P.O. Drawer 15709, Tallahassee, FL 32317-5709; physical address: 325 John Knox Rd, Bldg E, Ste 200, Tallahassee, FL 32303. To file with the Commission by email, scan your completed form and any attachments as a pdf (do not use any other format), send it to CEForm1@leg.state.fl.us and retain a copy for your records. Do not file by both mail and email. Choose only one filing method. Form 6s will not be accepted via email.

Candidates file this form together with their filing papers.

MULTIPLE FILING UNNECESSARY: A candidate who files a Form 1 with a qualifying officer is not required to file with the Commission or Supervisor of Elections.

WHEN TO FILE: Initially, each local officer/employee, state officer, and specified state employee must file within 30 days of the date of his or her appointment or of the beginning of employment. Appointees who must be confirmed by the Senate must file prior to confirmation, even if that is less than 30 days from the date of their appointment.

Candidates must file at the same time they file their qualifying papers.

Thereafter, file by July 1 following each calendar year in which they hold their positions.

Finally, file a final disclosure form (Form 1F) within 60 days of leaving office or employment. Filing a CE Form 1F (Final Statement of Financial Interests) does not relieve the filer of filing a CE Form 1 if the filer was in his or her position on December 31, 2020.
