MEMORANDUM

TO: Commission Members

FROM: Kerrie J. Stillman, Deputy Executive Director

SUBJECT: Consideration of Final Orders on Financial Disclosure Fines Where There Has Been No Timely Appeal and No Payment

DATE: August 25, 2021

You are familiar with the number of persons who have filed appeals of their financial disclosure late-filing fines. In addition, a large number of persons did not appeal the fine assessed under the law, or did not appeal in a timely manner. They either filed late, or not at all, and were sent fine notification letters advising of the right to appeal within 30 days of the notification letter.

Attached is a list of persons who have failed to bring a timely appeal and have not otherwise responded to our mailings. If we knew an individual had an incorrect address, that person was taken off the list. If we thought there might be some other problem with a particular case, we took the person's name off the list. Staff will work through cases that have address problems or other issues, and those cases likely will come before you in the future.

Also attached is a sample final order for these cases that will formally recognize the statutory fine and provide closure to the Commission's proceedings for a late filer (or non-filer) who has not timely appealed. With your approval, staff will render default orders in these cases. Filers who are currently receiving public funds will be referred for salary withholding. All others will be transmitted to the Department of Financial Services' contract collection agency, Transworld Systems Inc., for collection.

DEFAULT FINAL ORDER

This matter comes before the Commission on Ethics for the failure of {Filer_Name} to pay the assessed fine. Pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, the Florida Commission on Ethics is charged with assessing automatic fines of $25 per day up to a maximum of $1500 for persons who are required to file financial disclosure but who either file late, or not at all.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. {Filer_Name}, {Org_Name}, {Suborg_Name}, was on the list of persons required to file a {Form_Type} for the year {Form_Year}.

2. Pursuant to Section 112.3145(8)(g), Florida Statutes, {Filer_Name} was mailed a copy of the {Form_Year} {Form_Type} no later than June 1, {Filing_Year}, and was mailed a delinquency notice by certified mail no later than August 1, {Filing_Year}. Additional attempts to contact {Filer_Name} were also made by Commission staff.

3. However, {Filer_Name} did not file a {Form_Year}{Form_Type} by the designated due date. {Filer_Name} was sent a notice of payment due advising of the statutory rights to appeal or dispute the automatic fine in a hearing before the Commission if such appeal was received within 30 days of the notice of payment due. No timely appeal was received from {Filer_Name}.

4. More than 60 days have elapsed since the notice of payment due was transmitted without {Filer_Name} paying the fine.

5. On its own motion, the Commission voted to affirm that a fine in the amount of ${Fine_Amount} has accrued in this matter.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

6. The Commission has jurisdiction over the parties to and subject matter of this case, pursuant to Section 112.3145, Florida Statutes.
